Fr. Mohan's Message

My Dear Students,

Thomas More (1478-1535) was a scholar, a lawyer, a committed Christian, Lord Chancellor of England and a martyr for his Catholic Faith. He lived in a time when bloody wars were provoked over the succession to the throne.

Many politically powerful men and women of his day were willing to compromise their conscience so that the king could declare himself head of the Church in England. Thomas More could not and did not enter into the compromise. Rather than deny papal authority, he chose to defy the king's Act of Supremacy. He died a martyr of his convictions.

The world recognized More as a good and brave man of principle. As one Philosopher commented: A general groan of sorrow went up from Europe when More was put to death. He was recognized for his goodness. He gave his life for the truth.

You might recall that St. Michael's highest academic honour is named for St. Thomas More.

St. Michael's theme for 1997-1998 was "In Pursuit of Goodness." We understand that the first movement toward knowing is in our ability to identify goodness; the second movement in coming to know is having the moral courage to integrate that goodness into our lives, regardless of the cost to our convenience or comfort. Thomas More gave his life for goodness. St. Michael's asks you to choose goodness. It is the logical choice following from a St. Michael's education.

Thomas More was strong, truthful and gentle. The following is a piece of wisdom which he left us. You might adopt it for your own life.

You must not abandon the ship in the storm because you cannot control the winds. On the other hand, you must not force upon people new and strange ideas which you realize will carry weight with persons of opposite convictions. On the contrary, by the indirect approach you must seek and strive to the best of your power to handle matters tactfully. What you cannot turn to good you must make as little bad as you can.

(Quoted in The Public Career of Sir Thomas More, by J.A. Guy, p11)

In Christ,

Fr. F. Mohan C.S.B.

The Order of St. Michael honors those who in the opinion of the Board of Governors of St. Michael's College School have embodied in their lives the principles of Catholicism and community service which best inspire St. Michael's students.

The Order of St. Michael

ST. MICHAEL IS MENTIONED IN HOLY SCRIPTURE AS PRINCE OF THE ANGELS AND THE DEFENDER OF THE CAUSE OF GOD AGAINST THE FORCES OF EVIL.

THE NAME MICHAEL IS TRANSLATED INTO ENGLISH FROM THE HEBREW AS MEANING "WHO IS LIKE GOD". IT CAN BE SEEN THAT THOSE WHO PROMOTE GODLINESS, VIRTUE, AND CHRISTIAN IDEALS IN THEIR LIVES INDEED HAVE A LIKELINESS TO OUR SCHOOL PATRON. OUR WAY OF APPRECIATING THE CONTRIBUTIONS OF THESE MEN AND HONOURING THEM IS TO ENROL THEM IN "THE ORDER OF ST. MICHAEL."

What Is A Prefect ???

Well, we'll tell you. A prefect has a large responsibility, they are chosen to represent the school at various St. Mike's related functions. Not only are they ambassadors but Mr. Pagano and his team of exceptional students have a year round job of setting an example for fellow students and helping the younger students become familiar with the school and it's ideology. This year they have been involved at the Majors games, fashion show and grade eight information night as well as numerous dinners and fundraisers.

Setti As A Priest? It Could Happen...

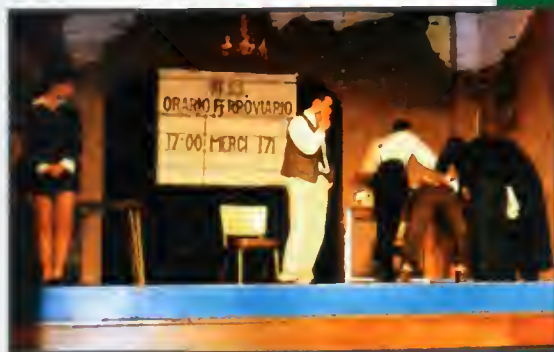

"Hey! Easy On The Eyeliner!"

On November 15, after weeks of preparation the curtain rose on the opening night of the Italian Play. The night began with a few short comical skits to whet the audiences appetite. Then, after a short musical interlude by members of Mr. Pietrkiewicz's senior band the main play Quel Simpatico Sagrestano began. In the first act, the characters and their problem, a train station in dire financial straits, are introduced. However there is hope for the station in a priest (played by Settimio Coscarella) who has a brother in the government (the "Commendatore" played by Anthony Ruffolo) who can help. As well, each character seems to have problems of their own. One of the railworkers at the station (Ryan Iaboni) is in a dispute with his girlfriend's father who does not approve of him. The Commendatore is preoccupied with the thought of his wife who is expecting a baby. The owner of the station (Rob Montesano) not only has to worry about the train not stopping there again but also an arrogant businessman (Giorgio Bandiera) who is looking to exploit the station for his own ends.

Commedia di Franco Roberto

"Wake Up!! It's your line now!!"

The cast takes their final bows.

Uniting each event in the story was Mario DeCicco who performed the title role. He was involved in one of the funniest and most memorable scenes of the play where he mistakes the "onorevolezza" (Marilena Settecase) who is in the town to help the situation, for her secretary (Adrianna Villi). In the end through a hilarious turn of events, everything seems to turn out for the better: the arrogant businessman gets what he deserves, the railworker gets engaged to his forbidden love, the Commendatore receives word of his daughter's birth and the train station is saved from closing down.

As the curtain closed, the actors were met with a rousing applause by the audience who braved the cold weather to attend. The play was a success because of the efforts of all the actors, the stage crew, the musicians who provided the musical interlude, and of course Mr. Grassi, who endured countless hours and headaches to direct the play for the 26th straight year.

In Flanders Fields
John McCrae

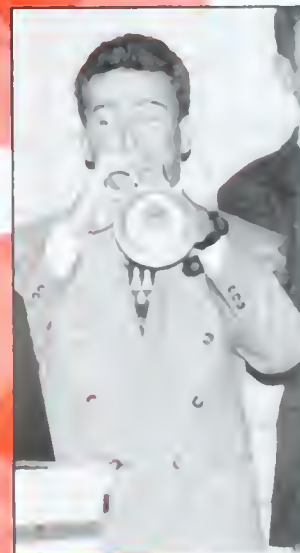

In Flanders fields the poppies grow
Between the crosses, row on row
That mark our places; and in the sky
The larks still bravely singing, fly
Scarce heard amid the guns below.

We are the Dead. Short days ago
We lived, felt down, saw sunset glow,
Loved, and were loved, and now we lie
In Flanders fields.

Take up our quarrel with the foe:
To you from failing hands we throw
The Torch: be yours to hold it high!
If we break faith with us who die
We shall not sleep, though poppies grow
In Flanders fields.

We Remember...

"We're building more than just a building!"

The renovation of the north building began this year and is scheduled to be finished in the near future. This construction provides a 200 seat lecture hall, a new kitchen, a renovated cafe, a new library, new science and computer labs & an elevator.

Construction started in Jan. 1998, led by Project Director, Larry Kavanagh O.A.A., and the design team of Saccoccio Wepler Architects, MCW Consulting Mechanical and Electrical Engineers, Larden Muniak Code Consultants & Eastern Construction Ltd.

The design reflects the tradition of the 1950 building in the same classical proportions with the distinctive Ohio Belden brick and limestone. A 15 foot high carving of St. Michael will stand guard over the new main entrance, inspiring teachers and students as they pass into a new SMC.

BISHOP'S PALACE ON CHURCH ST.

The original of this picture was found in The Thurable, the 1935 year-book of St. Michael's College and, although labelled St. Michael's Rectory, was more properly known by its canonical title The Bishop's Palace at St. Michael's Cathedral. The building still exists on Church Street just north of Shuter Street, and is of interest to us as the site where St. Michael's College was founded.

Now, at the request of Bishop Charbonnel, the Basilian Fathers had come out from France to Toronto in 1852. At that time St. Michael's College was lodged in the Bishop's Palace and was under the direction of the Christian Brothers still known for their association with De la Salle "Oaklands". In 1853 the Basilian Fathers taught at and directed St. Mary's Minor Seminary located at 38 Queen Street. (Regrettably our archives have no picture of any kind of the previously mentioned Minor Seminary.)

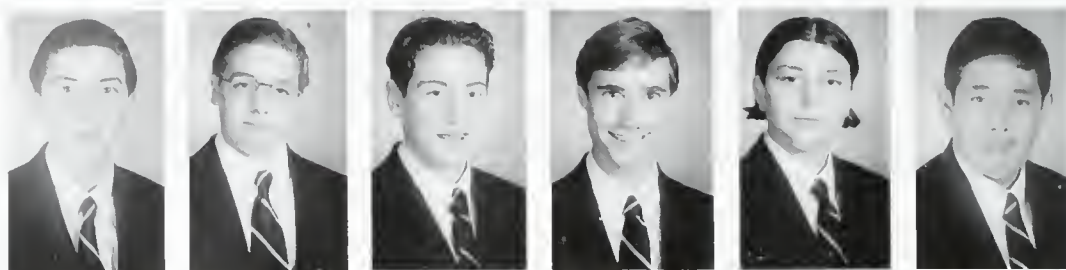

For the academic year of 1852-1853, the Minor Seminary under the Basilians had a grand total of 21 students while St. Michael's College directed by the Christian Brothers had only 8. To make a long negotiation short, "On February 14, 1853, the Minor Seminary of St. Mary's left 38 Queen Street for the Bishop's Palace; it absorbed the few students of St. Michael's and soon took over even the name."

The primary focus of the Basilian Fathers from the beginning of their labours in Toronto was, of course, the preparation of their students for the priesthood. Father Roume's history notes that in the month of March, 1853, there were 29 students all told, three of whom later became bishops; one of them, Denis O'Connor, CSB, as first the bishop of London, Ont., subsequently became the Bishop of Toronto.

So, our school owes its name to St. Michael's Cathedral in the shadow of which it was founded, and a debt of no mean size in our history to the Christian Brothers. But did it all begin as a real college? Well, yes and no. No, not in the sense that we presently understand a college as a post-secondary institution of learning. But yes, because that is how both the Christian Brothers and the Basilian Fathers saw the school. After all, both teaching orders were of French foundation, three of the five founding Basilians were French by birth, only two, Irish members of the congregation, spoke English. So, for both Basilians and Christian Brothers, the only possible title for a school that taught the liberal arts had to be "collège" Volà!

Therefore, while the University of St. Michael's College downtown rightly traces its beginnings to 38 Queen Street and the Bishop's Palace in 1852, the fact that all the students were of high school age authorizes St. Michael's College School to make exactly the same claim.

A NEW ST. MICHAEL'S

Even as the Basilians taught in the first St. Michael's College down in the Bishop's Palace behind the cathedral, they knew they had to move and to build. But where? Far outside the city limits of Toronto with all its noise and distractions so hostile to studies.

The architecture above has been referred to in one of the College year-books as French Provincial, and "out in the country" provincial it surely was! A major consideration in choosing a good site was "in direction that the city of Toronto would probably grow" In 1853 the best site available had been selected by the Jesuit Fathers for the school they had planned to build, "Clover Hill", the estate of Mr. John Elmsley.

Born and raised a Protestant, John Elmsley converted to the Catholic faith and made certain lots of his large estate available to the Basilian Fathers for building their new school. Some of us may even recognize the spire and the church because they still exist, known as the parish of St. Basil down on St. Joseph Street three blocks south of Bloor between Bay Street and Queen's Park Crescent. John Elmsley's generosity made the building possible; in a curious way, he is still with us. After his death his heart was lodged in the west wall of St. Basil's Church behind a large memorial plaque whose legend read: "John Elmsley, cuius cor hic positum est."

The church seen in the architect's design was enlarged, and the central section, known today as the Odette Centre (Clover Hill) never had the cloister effect planned for it. The wing facing the church was built in sections, the south half becoming the high school section of St. Michael's College. And as for that long fence running up the side of the "backyard", re-build it today and it would run up Bay St. headed for Bloor St.

Nothing is forever, and the "high school wing" described above was demolished in 1971. Look at this drawing and find the entrance in the shadows. The arch in this entrance, saved at the request of a former principal of the school, Fr. Norman Fitzpatrick, CSB, was hauled up to the present site of the College School and now straddles the sidewalk leading out to Bathurst St.

Our last point of interest is the very top of the spire of St. Basil's Church. Now, church spires were commonly crowned either with a cross or a weather-vane featuring a rooster. Not the institution in this drawing! Where we might have expected a fleur-de-lys we find a shamrock!

So, this church spire reminds Toronto that a large segment of the city's population in 1850 was denied a high-school education because it was poor, Catholic and Irish. While our school remains as Catholic as it was from its beginning the perception that it is Irish is no longer true but, like most popular myths, refuses to die.

GRADE ELEVEN

THE 1863 ST. MICHAEL'S COLLEGE

Here with the south elevation of St. Michael's College as seen from St. Joseph Street in 1863. Our students taking French would call it (and properly so) the façade. To the left, the first edition of St. Basil's church. Apart from the architect's drawing, how do we know it has to be a church? Easy: that pointed top to the three windows. Technically an 'ogive', this window-top is more commonly known as a 'gothic arch' and for centuries has identified Christian churches and church buildings.

St. Basil's Church is perhaps half the size of the church we now know in Toronto. The original church will be enlarged and the distinctive spire will be built. Many people still remember when the spire of St. Basil's could be seen for miles in any direction. As things are now, however, the church is dwarfed, almost lost, in the clutch of high-rises that have sprung up in the last 30 years.

The main building at which we are looking has two entrances; the one on the right will be modified, leaving the entrance on the left which is still the main entrance to the Odette Centre, Clover Hill. All the rooms whose windows you see were either offices or personal rooms for priests, seminarians and resident students. "Resident" is the operative word because most of the students (high school and college) came to live at St. Michael's. They will come from far and wide across Canada and the northern United States, eventually from the Caribbean Islands and South America.

Now, about those two little towers up on the roof: the one on the right was for many years a bellry. The rope that rang the bell hung down into the main corridor so that the beginning and end of classes could be announced to all.

This building stops at the right edge of the picture; later on in the 19th century an additional wing will be added. This wing in its turn will be enlarged to form the "high school wing" where many of our present elderly alumni, and the fathers and grandfathers of some of our present students received their high school education. The present St. Basil's Church and the main building are locked into the Heritage system and the exterior cannot be altered in any way without the permission of this system.

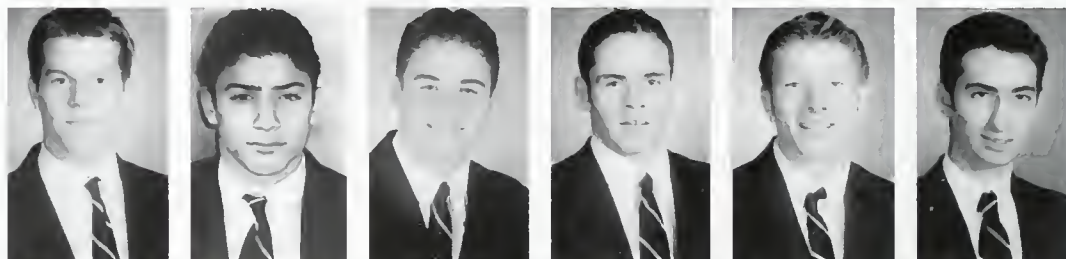

Access to the church and the main building from St. Joseph Street down front was for pedestrians only, through a gate in the front fence. Then motor cars appeared on the scene. A wide breach was made in the front fence to allow a road wide and winding to be built up to the main entrance. For many years this access was known as 'the road to Ireland'.

Look closely at the bottom of the picture. Not one but two fences. And between them the track that will become St. Joseph street. You, the spectator, then, are standing where splendid houses will be built. They in turn will be demolished to make way for the new St. Basil's Seminary in 1952, now the site of the Curial Offices of the Basilian Fathers and the Basilian Residence

GRADE TWELVE

SMC ON BATHURST ST.

Our school sat for her portrait in the October sunshine of 1985 and demonstrated how much she had grown in the 132 years since 38 Queen Street and the Bishop's Palace at St. Michael's Cathedral. To the very limit of Basilian resources, the new building on Bathurst Street was state-of-art in high-school construction in the 1940's. And there's a story in the choice of architects.

In the 1940's the leading candidate for "our" architect, we are told, was a high profile American architect with a long string of successes in building Catholic churches and schools. The Basilian Fathers were ready to engage this man's services, and would have done so had they not been reminded in a nick of time of a very thorny political reality.

It was the era of "Canadian education, hire Canadians, ONLY Canadians. All foreigners, go home!" Such in fact was the spirit and the letter of the law. So it was out of the question to hire the well-deserving American architect. The Superior General of the Basilian Fathers was informed that one of the best in Canada was a French Canadian named Ernest Cormier who, like his American counterpart, had designed many famous beautiful buildings, notably the Supreme Court Building in Ottawa and the main building of the University of Montreal.

Mr. Cormier accepted to build the new St. Michael's, and should you wish to see a picture of him and duplicates of his two blue-prints, just go down to the Board of Director's Room next to the Principal's office. The air-photo picture of the new school shows what we looked like without a gas-station, a Loblaw's store or a Priest's Residence for neighbours.

Now, a word about the tower... for which our school year-book is named. Tower with a cross, of course, what did you expect? More to it than that! Any picture of the University of Montreal will show you that its tower and OUR tower both tell the world "I was designed by Ernest Cormier."

The prestigious Canadian Centre of Architecture in Montreal once sent a group of its people to photograph and report on all Cormier's buildings in Toronto. (There are three of them!) Their scrutiny of our building, inside and outside, from the basement up to, and into, the tower being completed, their guide presented to each visitor a souvenir, a shiny new St Michael's blazer-crest The head of the visiting group added this to their many thanks:

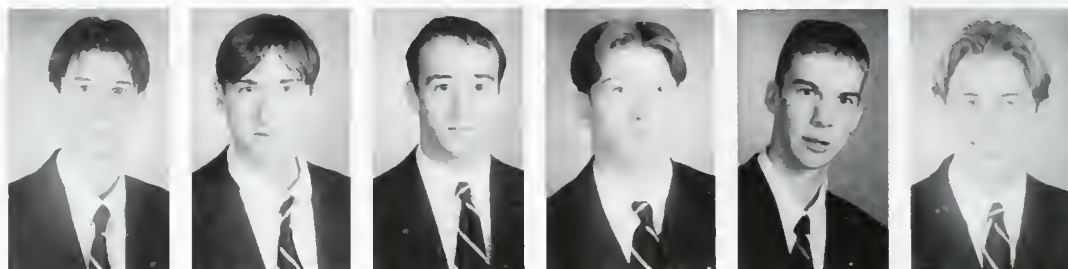

"We know intimately all of the buildings in Europe and in America that our Ernest Cormier designed Your St Michael's College School is the only one that features in its crest Mr Cormier's signature tower!"

To sum it all up: in all respects a truly impressive building. . . what else would you build for a truly impressive school?

A Future St. Mike's

Almost half a century has passed since new construction has taken place on the classroom building. Over that period vast changes in learning and technology have swept over us. Although St. Michael's adheres to time-tested methods of learning we are among those who adopt changes that are obviously beneficial to academic advancement.

To accommodate these changes in technology and methodology we are now updating our science and computer labs. The new labs will be located in the new north wing and will also include expanded cafeteria facilities, locker rooms, two new classrooms and a 250 seat lecture hall as well as facilities that will allow wheel chair use on the elevator and specially designed washrooms.

Besides the new wing the older classroom building will be brought up to modern standards with sprinklers, climate control and communication features. Grads can be assured that their younger brothers, the future grads of the third millennium will receive an education every bit as good as the yellow brick school.

Ancie, Steve

I will always remember: the bizarre early morning discussions with Jason, Dario, and Rich, 4 years of Mr. Thompson's class, the wrestling debates with Jee, Setti, and Puttock, twoonice bin games in section 7, Cruisin' for a Bruisin' w/ Mr. Coghlan, double lunches, all these IHL championships, spare with Sean, Amedeo, and Coccia especially spare at the gardens, Any Number Can Die, the thousands of hours perfecting the art of yearbook with Josh, Tom, and Fr. Cullen, the HALLCOPS watching the O.J. verdict in Fr. Enright's English class, the Wizard of Oz, off key notes and hot chocolate in Choir, Duddy Kravitz debates with Mr. Nicholson in 12A, Fr. Mario's jokes, and the memorable conversations with Lankin, and Nick. Thanks for everything guys and see ya at the turkey roll.

Andriano, Vince

For as many stars that are in the sky, there are dreams in the minds of the young. But for as much as one can stretch, he can never reach them alone. Thank you to all those that have encouraged me along the way. To all the Boys (especially the Cancun Crew) remember:

Ash, Michael

Time flies when you're havin' a ball and although it seems that yesterday was the first day of grade nine, the memories that I have experienced over these last five years will be with me forever. First, I must thank St. Mike's for everything that it has given me and secondly to my friends for helping me get through it. These two forces have forever shaped me (hopefully for the best) to challenge the rocky road ahead. Even though I will move on in life, the principles of St. Michael's will always be with me.

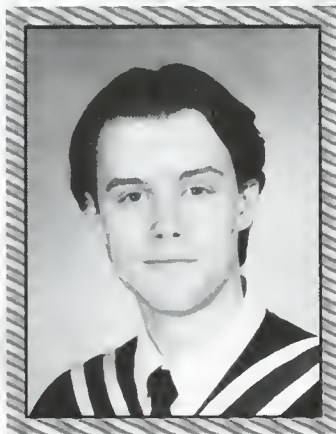

Azzopardi, Jeff

Been thru a lot during 5 years in the yellow bricks and for the most part, it's been fun. But alas the time has come to move on! Thanx to the teachers and coaches who have made my stay enjoyable. To my parents, who were ALWAYS there, I could never repay you. Thanx for your continued love and support, not to mention picking up the tab. It was well worth it. Anywayz, shout out to D Boyz (u know who u r), all my classmates and teammates over the last half decade. Thanx for watching my back, motivating me and filling each day with its own unique memories - though too many to list, believe me, them and you will never be forgotten.

Ball, James

It is a bad thing to have writer's block when you have an ISU due the next day. You shouldn't do your grad quote at the last minute. It is a great thing to actually graduate from St. Mike's. Remember to always keep sight of your goals. If you want, I'll draw you a map or fly you there. Special thanks to Elor and Josh for the insightful discussions at McDonald's about the world's biggest unsolved mystery. Memories of Raccoon day, subway kill watching, Saturday morning debates, OMP x3, Montreal x2, Metrobowl manager and the Senior 'B' machine, Senior Pro-Con Champs. Thanks to ES, JK, MG, SK, ABx2, TC, NB, my parents, and God. HURRY UP PLEASE IT'S TIME!"

-T.S. Eliot, Wasteland

Bandiera, Giorgio

Boys, we're done! Five unforgettable years have gone in a flash but the memories I have will last a lifetime. I leave with memories of Italian play '95, '96 '97, AV adventures, OAC Physics and Chem., calcietto, and Calculus with Mr. Coghlan. Thanks to all: my parents, teachers and the boys - good luck in the future.

Barnes, John

I'd like to start off by thanking my family for supporting me both financially and motivationally through the past five years. I'd also like to thank all my teachers, especially Fr. Enright, Mr. Narducci, Mr. Pietkiewicz, and Mr. Fischer. I leave this yellow bricked shrine with some everlasting memories:

Heavy D in the subway doors, Bahamas '97 and triple gold, D.F. and the Sarna hit, C.F. and the mama joke, J.M. and Springer, JPM with his WDA, A.L., and chattin' with Marcin. I'll probably never again experience IHL brawls, JFK seminars or "garden duty". SMC forever "And if the dam breaks open many years too soon, And if there's no room upon the hill... And if the band you're in starts playing different tunes, I'll see you on the dark side of the moon." Pink Floyd

Bartucci, Jason

"I have a journey, sir, shortly to go; My master calls me, I must not say no." - Kent (King Lear, v. iii) As the 5 best years of our lives come to an end, we all travel our own separate ways: to find our own master, our own destiny. I owe all the fun to the boyz (teachers included). You know who you are. Never forget calc 101, ISU all nighters and fevers, March break x3, and WCW vs. NWO (24 time champion). Cactus Jack and Chainsaw Charlie, Locker Room Tag Team Champs. Thanks to all those who helped me along the way. To the 1 who stood by me through thick and thin (3 and 1/2 years), you truly are the best. Thanks to Mom and Dad, SMC was well worth it. I owe you big, for all the love, support, and guidance. Good luck to all the boyz; keep in touch and remember pages 19-20 of the Practical Stylist.

Begin, Daniel

Thanks to my mom for driving to school (1h 20 min) every day, my father for showing up to all my games and to family for always leaving their doors open for me. Memories: 5 years of football, 3 TDCAA championships, MetroBowl, 2 Toronto Bowls, 2 years All-Star Camp, and the Baby Blues championship. Football trips to Detroit and Ohio, grade 12 trip to Quebec, brawls with Mazur, grad trip to Cuba, and summers at World's with Gaz and Tank ("Starting Defense, place at the table" - Latimer). Five years of yellow bricks, blue slips, and championships, its finally over eh, Tank (2nd toughest kid). Good luck to all my football and hockey pals, and the weightroom boys. The Class of '98 "We might not have the brains, but we sure won the games"

Bitner, Kris

I can't remember much of the last 5 years. A bit of advice if you're in despair, just remember that it will end eventually.

"Surely there is a future, and your hope will not be cut off."

- Proverbs 23:18

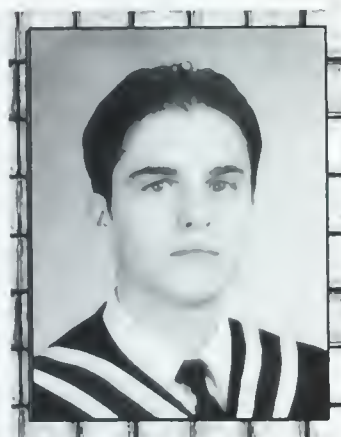

Bond, Andrew

Well, my 2 years at St. Michael's are finally over. I have experienced many good memories which I shall treasure for the rest of my life. Many thanxxx to the staff and student body for making my two years at St. Mike's such a success. P.S. My next movie comes out in the summer.

Breech, Patrick

I don't have a poem about yellow bricks, or quote from some famous person. But, I do have five years under my belt at St. Mike's, which says a whole lot, especially if you look in our grade nine yearbook. I would like to thank my parents, the rest of my family, friends, and teachers for all their love and support throughout my challenging, yet rewarding time at St. Mike's. It was a great five years of my life. I have many great memories, especially x-country, Cobden 97(x2), van rides, IHF championships, track, west coast representin' in Florida/Bahamas 97, and grade 9 religion. Have a great life, and remember, "Life's short, Play hard."

Bressan, Andrew

From the moment I entered this school in grade 9, I knew there was something special about it. 5 years later, I leave with memories that will last me a lifetime. What I remember the most is grade 11 Geo., English with Mr. Enright, 5 long years of French, and, of course, the "pipette incident" in grade 9. Most importantly, I would like to thank my parents for supporting me all the way, and to the boys who made me laugh (32, Borna, the Guys from the north, Stu, Rat, Gt, Fav, Anton, McD). It's been fun, but the future calls.

"...and remember, take care of yourselves, and of each other." Jerry Springer

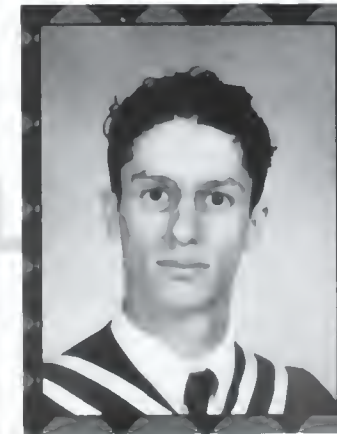

Brishois, Ed

I.O.U. one Grad quote.

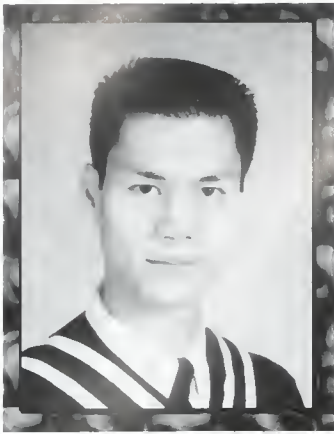

Carn, Matthew

I can only describe my experiences at St. Mike's as a "unique" in the broadest sense. Grade nine was probably the hardest year I had and after that, I was determined to graduate. And here I am, four years later, unbroken by the system, although two ISU's and two seminars in less than a month almost got me. To those entering, listen to Kondrashen Ivanov's advice. Just remember if you're stuck for an answer, just reply "Take the derivative" or "Use the formula." The school has provided me with many experiences, some good, some bad, but my experience here has been and will be one of the most valuable of my life.

Castellino, Michael

During my first weeks at St. Michael's in grade 9, I remember feeling the need to fit in and to be accepted not only by my peers, but by the surrounding SMC community. It was as if there was some "expectation" to strive for and fit into. Through many learning experiences, by my grad year, I felt accepted into this community and proudly stood among a group of well shaped St. Michael's men. I have many fond memories of the school band (Bahamas '97), the 'boyz' on the wrestling team, and Mr. Narducci's math class where we learned some of life's important secrets. Nothing beats the always entertaining lunches spent with Mark, Gabe, and Ryan, and in fact all the great times I have had within these famous yellow brick walls. Warm thanks to my teacher, and good luck to my friends.

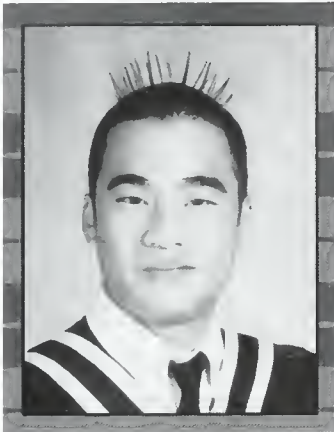

Chiu, Edwin

"When we are young wandering the face of the Earth wondering what our dreams might be worth learning that we're only immortal - for a limited time"

- Neil Peart

A heartfelt thanks to all those who made these five years so challenging yet rewarding. May God bless you and keep you always, and may all your endeavors prove fruitful.

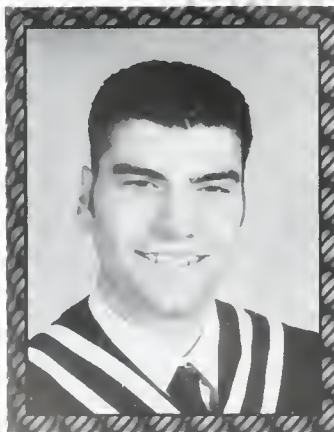

Chow, Anson

After five long years in these ancient halls of yellow walls, its finally over. Thanks to my family for their love and support: I know it's been a struggle putting up with me, to my friends for the good times and for their help along the way, and to my teachers for their knowledge and encouragement. Things I'll remember most: becoming furniture movers for a day, Father Cullen's art class, trying to help sell our friends' houses, Saturday nights, Markham transit, the field parties and related activities.

Coccia, Mark

"Everyone is a puppet of the puppetmaster, it just happens to be I'm holding all the strings." Thanks to Mr. Zahra and Mr. Lewis for 5 years of wrestling. To my club coach Jay for taking me to a higher level. To Mr. Coghlan for putting up with my antics for all these years. Gabe, Mike, Mark, Ron, and Ian finally we get to really party! All good things must come to an end, just sometimes earlier than expected.

Coscarella, Settimio

"Boooyyy, it's the same bloody clock and why were you late? Oh let me not be mad and don't waste my time. Go shave ... Sure!" - teachers of SMC Five long years and it's over with a blink of an eye. I truly believe that we are only good as our teachers and for that I thank them. To the boys, its been a crazy ride but I won't forget the memories. (Bleep ... Now you die!) Finally, I want to thank my parents and my brother for their encouragement. I couldn't have done it without you. Well my time has come. It's been fun but I got to go. "Take care of yourself and each other."

-Jerry Springer

5 years + 45 classes + 44 credits + 6 ISU's
+ 2 Italian plays + (960 x 10) yellow bricks
+ 1 trip to Cancun = 1 SMC GRAD

Chodorek, Martin

"All men are creative, but few are artists."

- Paul Goodman

Quack! My days (and nights) consumed by this bastion of fluency over the last 5 years have left several indelible marks on my brain. Nine terrific casts and crews, 3 harmonious choirs, 7 bands - including the magical mystery tourists of Florida/Bahamas '97, Room 12, and, of course, Raccoon Day! Meow! Thank you to: all my fellow grads, the SMC community - not for what you gave me, but for so many opportunities to give to you; the teachers who learned, the students who taught, and the powers that be. I won't become a stranger SMC. Every tomorrow has a yesterday. Leave a window open.

"What the hell was I talking about?"

- Mr. Paul McCann

Clark, Chris

I have one thing to say about my two years at SMC. It was all about ball. Now I'm not going to waste my time talking about all the good times, cause this is school, and there ain't many. Well maybe Sussex, the sickest tournament any team ever went to, and OFSAA 1998. Well enough of that, now to mention the proud and the very few I will remember from this school. Blair, McQuaid. No just kidding! Now really, have to take care of the real ballers: Cruz, Cueva, Younker thanks for the games, Olu for being the greatest storyteller I ever heard, Sussex, Simon, got to love Parkdale, Furlong, keep the tradition going. And finally Aras and Tyler the only people who never bugged me out.

Conte, Steven

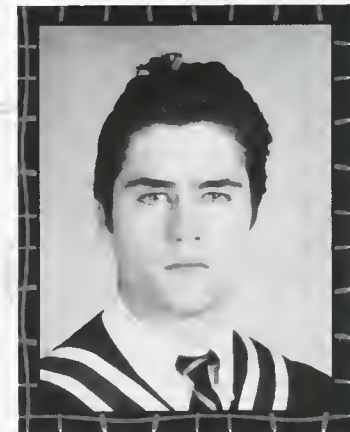

Well, I guess in the rush of it all, there's just the things you admire, the things you forget (for now), the things you despise and just live out to the death, and the things that have changed you that will always be cherished. And so like most of us, I can't believe I'm already writing my farewell. So, at the risk of getting suppy, I must thank, most of all, God, my parents, my brother and sister, my teachers, and all the friends I've made, who have helped make me! They all carried me through the hot summer runs, the cold winter all-nighters, and brought me to the richness of God. So it's into the unknown we go, knowing I got the love and support I need to pass it on, and carry out The Plan.

Cousins, Peter

The deed is done. 4 years in here changes you. Thanks SK, AM, JM, MR, FL, MO, JD, PM, and DB for keeping me alive. Scrapping in Quebec '97, Hip concert (Stu stay awake next time). Mr. McKernan's English for 2 years "Peace Brother". Thanks to Mr. McCann for cutting me from the B's for 3 years running. Getting tattoo's in '98, cottage on May 24 with mono. "Don't turn my car into a house of lies" P. Mazur, Chinese Gardens on Fridays, What's a Chihuahuas and Rodeo, Gypsies and Mitch, Blue Jay, Green Council grade 10 + 11, there was a Metro Bowl!

"I may not be smart, I may not be funny, but man am I cute" -P. Cousins

Crudele, David

Anybody know where the last five years went? Memories include: raccoon day, lunch hour political, theological and philosophical "discussions", Ireland '97, Umwah, World Issues seminar and "get togethers." Respects to Mr. Fischer and Mr. Narducci for continually going beyond the call of duty (give these men a raise). Thanks to God, for enabling me to see the forest, instead of just trees; Mom and Dad for paying the $25,000 mortgage (money well spent); and thanks to the crew: Nie Pappalardo, Martin Chodorek, Rob Perry, Eloi Silva, Ronan Rogers, Craig Davies, Mike Ash, Mike Plonka, Mike Varona, and Kevin De Souza. Remember: In politics, there is no right or left, only right and WRONG. Communism failed for a reason.

Cummings, Edmund

After five years of yellow-bricked gestation we were born into a sea of possibilities. So... or swim kiddo. Here's to mental gymnastics in Philosophy, heated debates in Western Civ., drama productions, killer sac, frizB, polka dot ball, film talks with Pawz, cosmology with Suche, and lunch with pigeons and wasps. Thanks go out to the family, my teachers, and of course all of the boys. Solidarity brothers!

Davies, Craig

"It was the best of times, it was the BLURST of times. You stupid monkey!" - Charles Montgomery Burns. It truly was the best and blurst (I mean worst) of times. From start to finish, through 5 years of hard work, big-time slacking, elaborate hooky plans, and the ultimate Hail-Mary play, the day the raccoon died. God bless that raccoon! And how could I forget Mr. Dudzinski's Grade 10 Science, Mr. Nicholson's Grade 10 English, Mr. Shannon's Grade 11 Bio, and Mr. Narducci's Calc., and Al-Geo. And of course, Grade 11 Religion with Mr. Lewis and the Goose. All bow down to the Goose and the Wicker man. Thanks to everyone for the memories and good luck in your endeavours. Special thanks to my crew, my extended crew, and anyone else who has helped me cause a raucous.

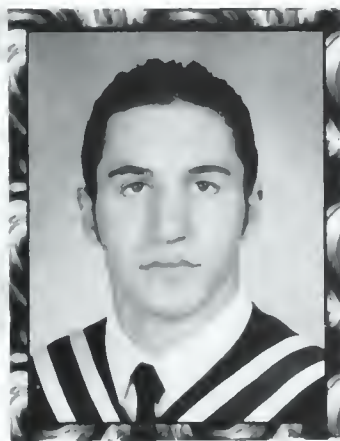

DeCarvalho, Marc

Can you say "Boom"? I can't believe that its over! It's finally time to leave these yellow bricks behind. I'd like to thank all my boyz who have made the last 5 years all memorable ones. It has been tough at times but you guys have made it all worth the trouble. I hope that all of you will succeed in your endeavors and live prosperous lives. I'd also like to thank my parents for all of their contributions towards my education. Well boys! It's been fun and all thanks to you guys. Keep it real boys. Special thanks to: BMI, CM, MS, RM, SC, AR, AP, AV, PD, AG, JT, MI, to my boyz on the Majors and anyone else I forgot to mention.

De Fayeri, Roberto

Thanks to my parents for footin' the bill Loretta; thanks for the calc lessons and Mom sorry for the sleepless nights. There once were many, now there are a few. Mass & Julian, all that remain. Shout outs to Jeff (Energy), Rovito (Business), Giorgio (Stiff), Adam (Physics), Manois (Barbwire), Mastro (One who left), Pippo (Soccer), Bartucci (tightest of them all), and all the rest. Who could forget TIOCAA and Calcetto champs, OFSAA '95 (Scarboro), '97 (Sudbury), Mr. DiPinto thanks. Turkey Bowl, AV, Fr. Enright's, Mr. Dudzinski's, and Mr. Thompson's classes, mafia movies Maria. You know too much & now there's no way out, the best is yet to come. I came, I conquered, I left. The memories & the name will never change. The body is gone, but the spirit will haunt forever.

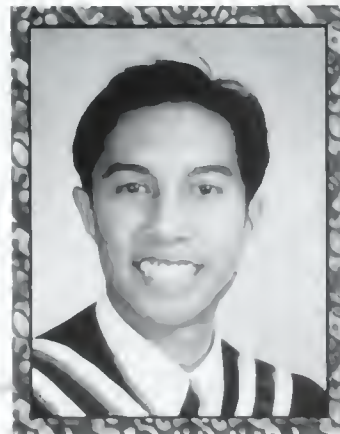

De Fina, Pietro

I've survived (the trials), served (the sentence), and surfaced (from SMC), all thanks to the nagging of all my peers and to help from the staff, or vice-versa, and the minor tees and easy workload. Never will I forget all the AV times with the boys, the hoofs and spoofs, all the great coffee times, butter, ruming, lunch sessions, Fr. Enright, summer school in Italia, and all my friends: Niteluse, Ale, Fess, Stiff, Bones, and the rat - who have made my years more bearable. So to all my friends I say "Good Luck", and to any toos "Goodbye!" Finally, the rest concerns the best: God, I could not have done it without You. To my parents and family from whom I've received only love and support (for which I am ever owing) - love and thanks.

De La Cruz, Mark

I'd like to thank all the teachers and coaches who have been able to guide me through tough music theory to technical sprinting drills. Also, to those people who have supported and helped me when nothing else was possible. Peace But most importantly, I'd like to thank God and my parents without whom my existence nor my survival at St Mike's would have been possible.

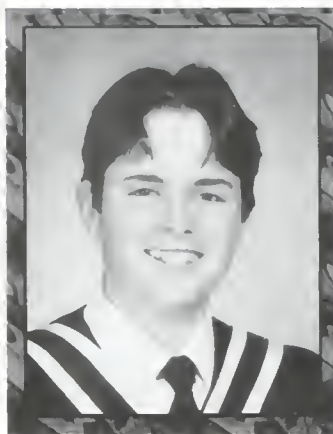

De Souza, Kevin

In 1993, 1992 scared kids sat in the cate as the Gr. 9 class was told we would be challenged tested and taught goodness, knowledge. Now we the survivors. I'd like to thank Halam & his hair at Harvey's for 5 years of great service. Memories include creating death with Mike O'Grady and Paul Mazur in the car. Jumping from moving trains, nosebleeds in Latin, Duds HR, lockerbrawls, and China Gardens. Who can forget giving Web the boot, being ranked last in Latin, Buffalo ID, and Dirty Old Town. Can't forget my X-country OFSAA silver medal (Ha). Thanks to PM, MO, FL, DO, PC, DB, AM, RR, T M, CD, CP, RP, MPS, for all the laughs. Oh Ya. "We broke the pitcher, we broke the pitcher." And don't forget: "Trying is the first step to failure" - Homer Simpson

Dilworth, Neil

I would like to give Father Cullen a break from writing all those great quotes last year by writing my own. I have now spent five years in this school, which means five years of great memories like: John 3:16, James meets the orange, 1997 golf tournament, giving standing ovations for Mr. Thompson's jokes, the majors' food frenzy all 40,000 dollars worth, Bond doing the X not once, not twice, but 3 times, 4 years of not being the slowest runner on the greatest high-school cross country team, playing in the IHL, Narducci's conspiracy theories and stand-up sessions as well as a Mr. McCann's religion class. Thank you SMC!

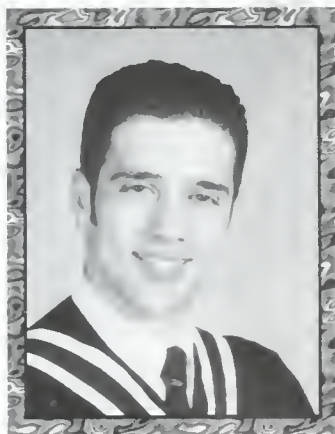

Donaldson, Tyler

It's been a long hard road but now it's over. I've had some good times and bad in this building, but I'm happy to be finished. Thanks to all the teachers I've had over the years for helping me along. Some memorable classes, grade 11 English with Fr. Enright, gr. 11 Chemistry homeroom with Mr. Tessaro. Grade 11, 12 Gym with Mr. Chittle and OAC Gym with Mr. Fiefield. I'll never forget my time spent here and I'm sure I will grow to appreciate it as I move out into the world for the lessons and values it has taught me.

Farlow, Daniel

"Farlow, you're weird, man, you're weird..." - Fr. Enright
Whatever I become, whether a lawyer, teacher at St. Mike's, rock star or philosopher, I will remain a St. Mike's man. I will always remember: playing the tuba, Mr. Pagano threatening to hang me by the "hair of my armpits", lateral thinking in Gr 10 Science, Words Are Important and poetry, being the star in the IHL, "enriched math", Hip concerts, rock lines in Physics class, and of course my Augustine seminar. My best days came in Rm. 12 for Latin and seminars with the water gun, Cookies, and "going to the board." I'd like to thank all the Basilians, teachers, and the janitors for 5 unforgettable years. And to all the lads in the class of '98, especially Barnes, the boys, Murph and the Majors, farewell and Cheers!

Ferlisi, Carmelo

First and foremost, I would like to thank all the teachers at St. Michael's who provided me with an outstanding education. I'd especially like to thank Mr. Pietrkiewicz and Mr. Oatt for five great years of music (especially that Florida trip). I would also like to thank Mr. Grassi and Mr. Di Leo for their excellent directing and patience devoted to the Italian Play each year. I'd also like to thank Mr. Quinn who showed me that Social Justice is a problem that all of us need to address. Finally I'd like to thank Sr. Frances, Mr. Nicholson, Fr. Enright, and Mr. McKernan for their invaluable tips and pointers on writing an essay. O thank you SMC and ALLO!

Flora, John

I would like to thank my parents and my family 5 Year! It was like a 5 yr sentence and every year keeps getting worse. But through all the crying, stressing, and regrets, there were some good times: Gr. 11 Eng w/ Fr. Enright, Eng w/ Mr. Nicholson, Bio w/ Davies. People who cried during sa-lad, OAC spares, Calc w/ Mr. Narducci, Ebonics w/ Mr. Nug and da booyahs etc. 21 gun salute to the china-flip-polish-jam-junglist-raver massive. Reload for all SMC crew OAC and 12. Special thanks to those who helped me along the way and who will continue to do so. OAC was perhaps the Best E, take Eng OAC in Ireland. Nuff advice. Keep it real Tru Bredren. Respect

Forsyth, Alistair

Well this is it, after 5 short years my time at SMC has come to an end. I'd like to thank all those who have made my years at St. Mike's interesting and on occasion enjoyable. First I thank my parents for putting up the cash and offering support. I would also like to thank the staff members who have enlightened me with their vast sea of knowledge. Particularly Mr. McKernan, Mr. McCann, Pietrkiewicz and anyone I couldn't think of off hand. Finally I just want to thank all my friends for all the good times, Quebec 97, Wasaga Beach etc. Thanks for the laughs, good luck with all your future endeavors.

Fox, Ken

"This is the end, beautiful friend"

- Jim Morrison

There have been both highs and lows.... But mostly highs. I will always remember: Sr. A hockey '96-'98, OFSAA '97&'98, Acapulco '98, Heath Street, the ring of fire, the boys from pizza, Calc with Mr. Narducci, Chem with Mr. Tessaro, English with Fr. Enright and Mr. Nicholson, and all the rest of my boys (you know who you are). I can't say I'm sorry to leave.

"After all, you're all just bricks in the wall." - Pink Floyd

Gaddi, Jay

First and foremost I'd like to thank God for guiding me through this portion of my journey through life. My walk through the yellow bricks is finally over but I will take the goodness, discipline and knowledge along with me. I also take all the memories- van days, sound crew, band, basketball, and volleyball: Windsor, Trenton, and Niagara College. Finally, I'd like to thank Mr. Vitullo and Fr. Mario for their continued support, my parents who gave me the gift of life, Nike who encourage me to "Just do it", and Varona, Book, the crew, L'il Bab and all my other friends for their help.

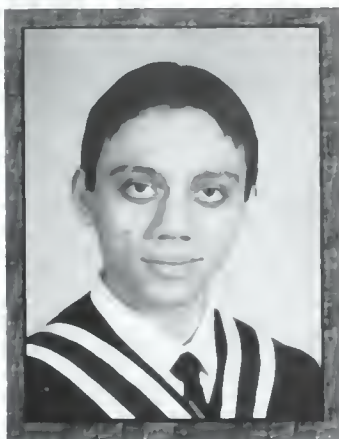

Garieri, Nicola

Gomez, Pablo

El Aguila's flight has finally come to an end. I'll never forget everyone who made it possible. Thanx to all m' teachers especially Gr.10 Mr. Dudzinski, Gr.11 Geo & Fr. Enright, Gr.12 Gym & Finite. To all m' boyz ya know who U R, La Mara 4-life.

In the words of the greatest philosopher Makaveli - "I ain't a ..."

Grossi, Anthony

The chapter of Anthony Grossi at SMC has now been officially written, and as I leave, the spotlight fades, but these memories of myself here will never die- me being the ICON of the weightroom and CHIN Jr '98, the St. Clair Sound Machine, HHHI, Italy '98- the days of Suitcase, the people I met, the envious dreamers at SMC- and the "real" teachers who knew my capabilities as a student and pushed me to reach my pinnacle of success at SMC. I want to send my love and appreciation to my family and the most special person in my life. I love it. I should thank my parent for buying me a $25,000 dollar education instead of a $25,000 dollar Camaro. The dynasty of Anthony Grossi has not yet begun and that's something all of you guys are afraid to admit. The Heart Break Kid has left the building.

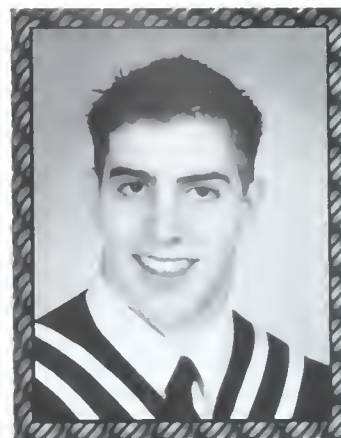

Galszka, Michael

It has been a very long 5 years at St. Mike's and I am glad to finally leave. Thanx to Mr. Narducci, Mr. Tessaro, Mr. Ribarich and Mr. Shust for your enjoyable classes and for making the time pass more quickly. I thank my friends JM, AM, TS, MC, AM, GB and SW for all the great time, you guys are the best. Best of luck in your future studies.

Gasdia, Paul

What've I done? I wish I could turn back the clock. I'd push myself harder, strive for higher. As long as it wouldn't jeopardize the memories. Master Lewis, gr. 11 religion, Fr. Enright, gr. 11 English. The Mahoso Video Series, Mr. Narducci, 4b calc., Calculus 101 at Tucci's Biggest, Badest, & Best Tag Team Champs of all, "The Walshy Brothers"! Mar's cottage Poco '98, Good old football flashbacks, Detroit, the Dome 96, the summer at World's with Tank & Beegs, Ohio, the Do-o-o-a-a-h-h-no, the team that wasn't. No broken knuckles, just broken hearts. Double Blue till I'm through. Thanks Mom & Dad for your guidance, support and charity... and sweetie, I'm eternally in debt to you for all you have done for me, I love you.

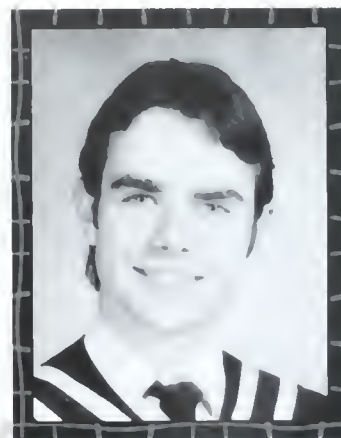

Gordon, Ryan

I entered St. Mike's five years ago as a clean cut, well groomed, spotless, polite, naive niner. Now I leave here after three tattoos, six ear rings, an impossible attitude, with a five a o'clock shadow and a dress code problem. Thanks to SMC for the memories and for showing me who I am. Blah Blah Blah I met Dave Reid.

"One last thing before I quit I never wanted anymore than I could fit into my head I still remember every single word you said And everything that some how came along with this. Still there's one thing that comforts me Since I was always caged but now I'm free."

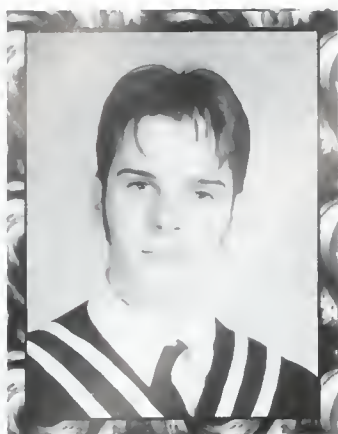

- David Grohl

Guiao, Dario

I leave St. Mike's with many memories that I would never trade for anything in the world. Such memories are- winning the TDCAA Senior football championship, Metrobowl, playing football in Detroit and Ohio and Mr. Thompson's physics tests. Although I leave St. Mike's with many memories, most importantly I leave St. Mike's with an unparalleled excellence in Catholic education which I will use in my future endeavors. Although I am graduating I am not leaving St. Mike's because St. Mike's will always be a part of me. Remember boys, You can take Dario out of SMC but you can't SMC out of Dario. Thank to everybody for making my years here great.

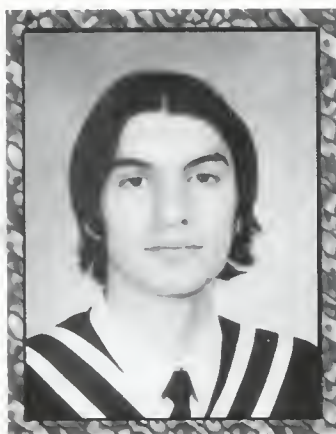

Hartmann, Erich

I can graduate from St. Mike's with pride knowing I never learned how to play Briscola.

God Save the Queen.

Harvie, Ryan

I'll probably look back at SMC and realize it wasn't all that bad. Remembering: religion with Mr. McCann, Fr. Enright in 11, Heath Street, lunch (pizza and Harvey's) and spare (nothing accomplished) will always be fun. Thanks to the boys who made the five years go by fast, good luck in the future. In runco credium. I don't look like Snoop. Oh! Yeah, where did all the girls go!

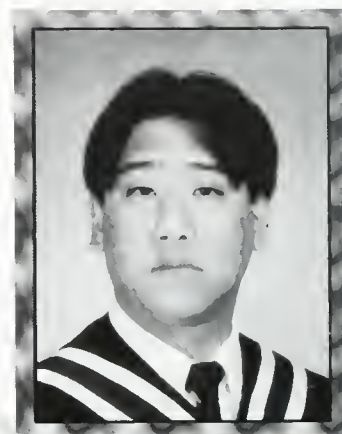

"We want the world and we want it now!" - The Doors

Hogg, Blair

Although I was only here 1 year, I felt like I was part of something special at SMC. It gave me a great opportunity to enter an academic institute that helped me gain knowledge and discipline. I also had the opportunity to play ball for SMC with T.O. Alt-Stars Simon, Aras, and Clark who led us to OFSAA. This was a great experience because I've never had the opportunity to play with players of that greatness and understanding towards my own court flaws. I'd like to put out respect to my friend David McQuaid. I'll miss you buddy. Finally a suggestion to SMC. Don't turn Co-ed. SMC's great and I loved the experience. Finally Garth and Andre are great. Thanks for great times Dave, Labingo, and Chris Simon. Finally thanks to my teachers, coaches, and Mr. Pagano for getting the best out of me.

Honglin, Michael

Hyun, Jonathan

Ignatavicius, Aras

Jee, Jason

Thank you St. Mike's for a great 5 years. I'd like to thank all the teachers and graduates for making my stay here an enjoyable one. Special thanks to my parents and friends who have supported me and helped me along the way.

Jekielek, Rob

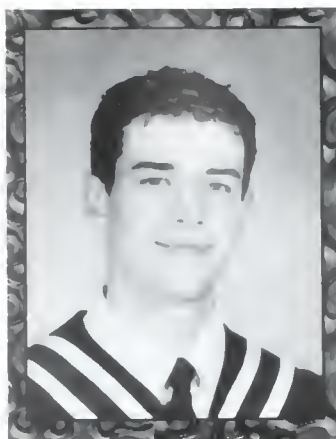

"It was the best of times; it was the worst of times." Dickens

So much to think about, so much to remember ... Mr. Narducci's 4b calc, chemistry with Mr. Tessaro, volleyball (OFSAA x2) and the final year of the SMC ski team. Special thanks to Mr. Coghlan, Mr. McKernan (with his Twain-like perspective on life) and especially Mr. Vitullo (for his continued support in volleyball and beyond). All friends and experiences will not be forgotten.

Katsuras, Sam

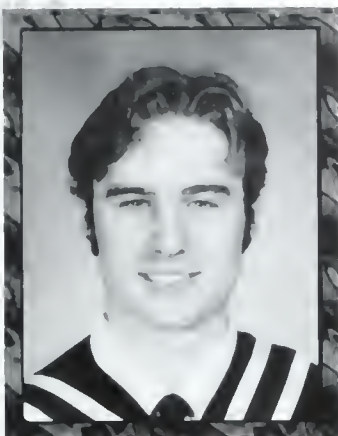

Kempston, Stuart

My memories of 4 years at Mike's. Grade 10 science with Mr. Dudzinski, Father Enright's "Words Are Important", the "Green Council", stage crew, 1-98, GOD BLESS THAT RACCOON! It's been fun! See Ya

Kiely, John

It's been memorable. Skydome '96, football practice, Lord Growlie, Ireland, Banff, UTS, semi. James: call me. Pennesi, I'm right, you're wrong; Westridge: keep in touch. Pep: with our sleight of hand and twist of fate, I'm happy . . . To my Family. Thanks for all of the support.

Kim, Daniel

Even though it has been a memorable 5 years, I have to admit it will be hard to miss going to an old, all-boys school, having to wear an uncomfortable uniform, serving endless detentions, and doing more work in my OAC year, then the rest of my life put together. I'll miss these old yellow bricks for they have stolen 5 years of my life and will form the foundation of my future. As for the grads: a lot of you are crazy, others cool. Take it easy and don't become a tool.

Kinghorn, Mark

Thanks to my parents for the support and my friends for the good times. No thanks to anyone who ever laughed at me; we'll see who laughs last. A big thanks goes out to my Princess who's always been there for me. I can't say I'd have turned out any worse at another school, but who knows. Maybe all the years of doing up my tie and being forced to conform had an impression on me, and maybe not. P.S. Where'd Dan go? $97.62, Eddie's sister, Mc lobster, Jamie "Captain Morgan" McDowell Voice Mail.

Koper, Sebastian

Get ready for this one. Get ready for this one." MC GQ Uhh... hey Beavis, here's my grad quote. Maximum respect goes out to my family for their support and to the Buschmen, the Ticats, and all the Komrades out there for all the massive and chillin' Better Days. I've learnt some valuable lessons here: how to cram more and plan less, that sofa chairs are severely underrated, and that you can actually get detentions for being 2 minutes late for spare. Me outta here, with fightin' Terrel style!"

Kuliavas, Stan

After 5 years, I can proudly say that I've never been "invited" to Fr. Mohan's office. I do, however, have memories that I'll take with me from my days in the yellow bricks: TDCAA Basketball Champs (40-1), HHL English with Fr. Enright, "Ya big boob!" Or 11 Kuno: Fu class, Sr. B. Chem with Mr. T, 10 plays of football, Bond (one too many ripped ligaments), "A Cool Dry Place" summer '97, 25 G's and 1800 TTC tickets later, I'm now a Good, Disciplined & Knowledgeable man, or so they tell me. I want to thank my parents, teacher, and all those who have helped me throughout these past years in becoming the person I am today. Doubt Blue till I'm through. As we go out separate ways next year boys remember: College is a fountain of knowledge & we shall go there to drink from it.

Kusugak, Pujjunt

Qovianakum Pianiktunga. Three years have finally gone by and I got through it somehow. It was tough but I guess it was fun. I'll have lots of stories to take back home about some of the buddies I've made over the three years. My highlight was probably scoring the game winning goal to win the TDCAA's with the junior Double Blues and Fatso's, eh Pablo. Fatso's was the greatest discovery I made in Toronto but also the saddest day when it was shut down. One thing I won't miss is OAC English. Aras and Jack know why. But even if it was awesome. Thanks boys. Hope that we'll see some of you in the North end.

Kwon, Glen

It's been a good ride, but I'm OUT!! I'd like to thank the teachers and classmates for the memories, and to the baseball team for all the memorable seasons: 1995, 1997. I'll all you Toolboxes. Later!!!!!!

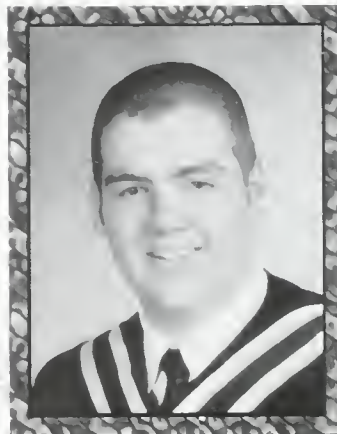

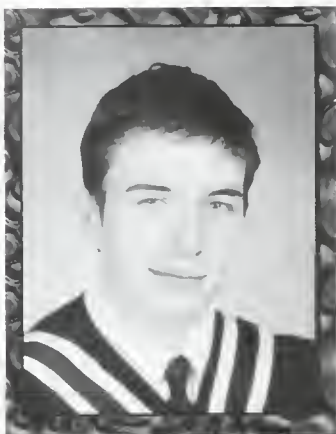

Kyrzakos, Josh

Things I'll remember: IHL 94-98, raccoon day, OAC Mr. McKernan seminar prep, skipping ski days, 3 identical years of grammar & dictionaries, ships of every colour of the rainbow, John 3:16, double lunch in the office, semi-formal 97 & 98, the Chicoutimi girl, "Oh yeah chemistry!", Metallica @ Molson Park, irritating Abbeyites, my 18th & 19th Bday parties, 14 hour school days, 7-15 rides to school with Mrs. D., 1750 GO train rides and even more subway trips, physics of a flying paper ball, "You're not the leader, I'm not the leader, they're the leaders! Squak!", but I'll never remember the darvadive. Thanks go out to all these who helped me along the way JA, LH, AA, VD, VS, JB, ES, MG, RG, SA, TS, and the most importantly my parents. My apologies to anyone whom I forgot.

Lamie, Frank

"The best kind of pride is that which compels a man to do his very best when no one is watching." Memories are the place where happiness remains eternal, for nothing can mar the fond recollection of a joyous time gone by. If the Good Lord let me take one thing with me, may it be the well of laughter that I have experienced amongst you all. Thanks to the boys for all the good times. Well Danny boy (2nd toughest), we finally made it! Mom, Dad, Beth, Pete - You guys know you are the greatest. A sincere thank you to my teachers, coaches, and mentors. Double Blue till I'm through!!! "And if by chance you happen to fail, do so while daring greatly, so that your place shall never be with those cold and timid souls who know either victory nor defeat." - The Man in the Arena.

Lankin, Chris

Through the 47 minute periods have often appeared to be endless, when looking at St. Mike's the time really seems to have flown by. Some things I'll always remember: all the great sporting events, the IHL, Gr. 11 English with Father Enright, food fights in the caf , Religion Seminars with Mrs. Currie, skipping all those times and not getting caught (with DP), seeing the Majors win, and most importantly learning how to sleep with my eyes open. Remember: it's the same bloody clock, you're not really a headcase, and no, I will not shut up. Thanks to all the teachers who inspired me, my family who always supported me, and the friends who made it all worthwhile.

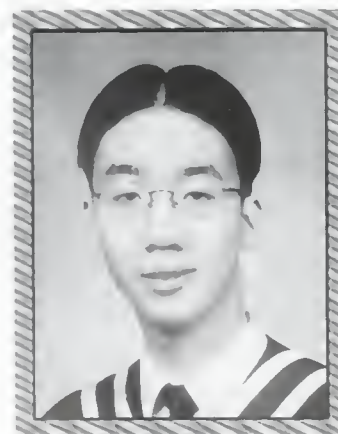

Lawless, Michael

I'd like to begin my last words to SMC with a quote from the philosopher Socrates: "Hello, my name is Socrates." It's been a long 5 years & it's been a short 5 years. Pigeon, music, the Wiz, weekends in London, Reach, the memories, Fr. Enright's English, Mr. Shannon's Geo, Mr. Dudzinski's science. "Oh, what a world." (Homer Simpson) Thanks to Mom & Dad who put me through this school, even though we had to sell my little brother. I'd also like to thank all the teachers who kept me awake: Mr. Barry, Mr. Narducci, Mr. Monahan, Mr. John, Mr. McKernan. It's been tough, but I wouldn't have done it any other way. Finally, thanks to all of you who have inspired my goals for the future. "When I get older, I'm going to be a principal or a caterpillar" (Ralph Wiggum) Mad Props to John Flora 4 life.

Leckie, Robert

It's hard to imagine that after 5 of the most influential and important years of my life, I only get 150 words to sum up how I feel about them. Although difficult at times, it is impossible to think back on SMC's without smiling. Thanks to ECL, RBL and especially AML. Thanks also to my teachers and coaches. Last but definitely not least, thanks to my friends, especially Schmidt, Striowski and O'Reilly. I can never forget: 2 Edgefests, ARA, 4 OFSAA's, Boston '97, Senior B champs, Sloan X2, BF5, The Raccoon, Ato, The Hip, The Econ seminar, The Boycott, all the times I can barely remember. In closing, Father I can do it myself.

Lee, Daniel

I can't believe 5 years have gone by so quick, it just seems like yesterday that I first stopped into this yellow bricked edifice that symbolizes goodness, discipling and knowledge. This school is a monument to excellence and honour to any who graduate from it. I feel privileged to have had the opportunities granted to me here. But now I move on. I'd be lying if I said I wasn't glad to be leaving; but I'd also be lying if I said I didn't enjoy my time here. St. Mike's has had a profound effect upon my life and will always leave a special place in me. To the teachers that helped me become a better man, I have nothing but the utmost respect for you, thank you. To the crew of past, present, and future, in and out... it's over, kid!!

Wow!! I can't believe that we've spent 5 years in this school. I hated waking up early each morning for this school and I'm glad to be leaving here but like everything else in life, once you get attached it's hard to let go. Somehow, some way this place finds a way to grow on you. Now, I may be out of here but the memories of this place will be with me forever.

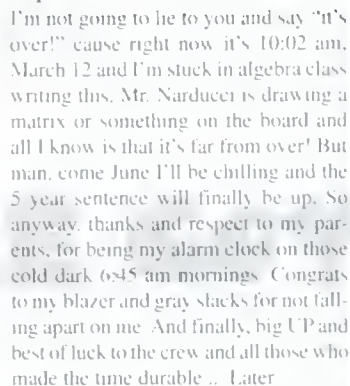

So many memories! The plays, Junior Football, finances, food fights, the weight room, Mr. Zinger's religion seminar and 8 great years of Physical Education. Many thanks to my family for all they have done for me. Remember.

Taima. That's it, no more school. I can't remember half of the 5 years. I was here at St. Mike's, but the memories I do have will stay with me forever. My most memorable ones start with the Gr. 11 Fridays after school, Geo in Gr. 11, Mr. Chittle's Gr. 11 and 12 gym class, the Chinese restaurant and Oh, yeah OAC English (What Joy!) Now, St. Mike's hasn't been too bad, and now. I want to wish the graduating class, especially all the bums in OAC Phys-Ed good luck, and hopefully, we see each other again. Quvianskum! That's it, I've got to go before I forget to hand in another important ISU.

It has been a long and difficult journey but now it is finally over. Throughout this journey I experienced many ups and downs. I would like to thank Mom and Dad for being there for me through those times. Thank for all the memories St. Mike's and a shout to the boys, Dayo, D-Star, McD. Jr. Chin and Pips. Double Blue til I'm through. Later, Syringe.

I want to thank all my friends for helping me get through it all. I couldn't have done it without you guys. Special memories: OAC seminar classes, lunch at panzerotto's, nap time in Gr. 11 history, chess, football, library baseball, top 5 lists in Gr. 12 spare, calculus with Mr. Narducci, major games, classes with Fr. Enright, singing Mick, Mouse in geo, senior football and soccer at SMC. To my fellow graduates, I wish success and happiness.

First and foremost, I must give thanks to my family for guiding me through 5 years of St. Mike's. But now, let's reminisce: this past OAC year has definitely been torture, but at the same time memorable. A year of student specials (and no, I don't want a drink, chips, cookies, or anything else), wasted spares, and being broke has made me stronger. Yet I will forever be indebted to those who have spotted me cash, and provided me alibis. Respect!

[illegible]

"Leaving, I hate to see you cry, Grieving, I hate to say good-bye. Dust and ash forever." - O. Osborne. The time has come to say good-bye & to ponder on the memories that have shaped us into what we are today. The past 5 years have been irreplaceable. Thanks to my parents who gave me this opportunity, and funded it. And to the golf crew JM (BF "Burger King"), JB (Cletus, "hey Marino you know what Weda did), ND, PR, the Sack (See Se), DC and of course that crazy Gino swimming in the Humber, thanks for guiding me through the first year. Memories- Stage Band, Concert Band, Quartet, Florida 97 (C.F. "the incident"), Golf Trip 98 (hopefully). This has been a great experience which will influence me for the rest of my life. "Better know nothing than half-know many things." - Nietzsche

Masney, Michael

First, I want to say thanks to my family for supporting me and helping me get through the last five years. To Carola, thanks for helping me during the last two. To all my teachers, thanks for teaching me everything and making me the scholar I am. Thinking back, the last five years within the yellow bricks have produced many memories: 3 TDCAA football championships; a trip to the dome; the season that wasn't, period 2 spare conversations in the caf; period 5 'study hall' in the library; Father Enright's Grade 11 English; Calc with Mr. Narducci (JFK, Tower of Terror...); going from 8 classes to 5; pulling all nighters; the final Majors game; room 214; trying to get to the dance with Vinny and Anton; and having fun with all the guys. Good luck in the future.

Mazur, Paul

I can't believe it's over. The last 5 years will not be forgotten. My blood is double blue and I'm proud of it. SMC has influenced me to be what I am. Pride, Respect, Loyalty! Thanks to my teacher's for putting up with me (Creative differences), and to my parents for sending me here. Mr. Pagano @ 213 - it's all true. To all the boys for helping me get into trouble and thanks for the support during rough times. Thanks to MO, SD, PC, DB, FL, DR, weight room & Cuba crew. Never forget. Driving with O'Grady, Cooper's (what's a Chihuahua? - Lamie), Rodeo (you are not dating my daughter!). BJ Birdie. Cuba '98. Brawls with Beggin. "I'm going to pick a fight" (William Wallace). Weight room. Girls. I don't want to skip-ha. As I leave I have one thing to say "I might not be the best student, but I can dance."

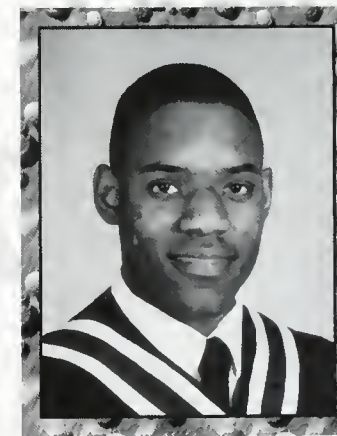

McDonough, Brian

Five years walking these yellow halls in a daze, as I look back at the years of St. Mike's, I remember all my struggles from being a niner to a grad. Special thanks goes out to my mother for allowing me to attend, my family for inspiring me to work hard and most of all a "what 'zup" to the boyz: "IT'S JAIL BREAK TIME!" Respect to: Junior Mob, and FHB.

Medina, Damien

A wise man once said, "what your mind can conceive, you can believe and achieve." Indeed, I believe that I have achieved all that my mind could conceive at St. Michael's. Thanks in the most part to the tireless efforts of the teaching staff (you know who you are) and to all the boys who make life an enjoyable experience. Memories include: senior hockey (TDCAA champs '97), Descartes (that was tough!), Thompsonian physics, & the ubiquitous cry of Ohhh, later! Indeed, parting is such sweet sorrow...

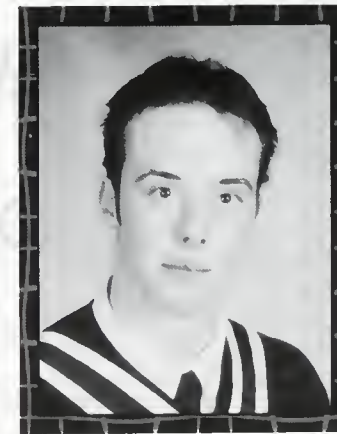

Mihevc, Justin

So many memories, so many ISU's. So many stories, so much fun. Great memories include Mr. McKernan's gr.9 English, gr.10 Religion w/ the boys from the "Side", Fr. And I can't forget my parents, for paying for the SMC experience

Millar, Jeffrey

Five years past, five years lost. So what have I gained from SMC... I don't remember but I'm sure there's something. Some things that deserve mention: Raccoon Day (God bless that Raccoon), Mr. Dudzinski and the "white noise", the "office", Cuba-98 and Cuba-98 and Cuba-98. Behold! The power of the wind!

Milway, Thomas

After all is said and done, I'd like to thank the teachers for their time and effort, the students for the laughs, my parents for their support and the computer for putting together the greatest classes of all time: 4B calc, Seminars, Mr. Ribarich's Chem, and Sister's English. Sports repping was a blast, despite the fact that I could never make the music work. SRB's rule, the TTC doesn't and I am the risky ringleader.

Minichillo, John

Five years go... five years remembered. Thanks to my family, friends, teachers and most importantly my blazer. Five years have passed by so fast. Four would have been faster though but I chose to remain a St. Mike's man. I made the right decision. Thanks to my teachers. Good luck, and of course many thanks Dad, and domo oka-san.

Moniz, Clifford

First off, I want to thanx my family for everything. Special thanks to Andy and SG, love you. I want to say to the king of fire crew, you know who you are. What's up now partna? I'm gone!

Montesano, Robert

What can I say about St. Mike's? It's been the greatest 5 years of my life. I'll never forget the laughs, the all-nighters, and OAC Calculus. I finally got used to these bricks, and now I will miss them Thanks SMC.

Monticolo, Stephen

After a five year sentence and $25,000.00 I'm finally out. Special thanks goes out to St. Frances for not holding a grudge. Mr. Grassi's patience. Mr. Wain's understanding, and the tuition without who, I would be driving a phone booth now. I can't leave without acknowledging my favourite teachers: Mr. Nordin, Mr. Tessaro, Mr. Shannon, and Mr. Nicholson. I'll never forget the ring of fire grad. 11th annual hockey, green office, 10th, arc lighting, 12 00 dismissal, Grade 12 scare, nighters, Ponzi, Acapuled, Fox, the red, Stanley Clips, Darrel, sitting, Dino, Mr. Narducci's JFK, and Invention for red stories. Er I thought for a moment, the two boys, Chad and Chris, and the boys, Felix, Gais, Menace, Schell.

It's hard to believe that it's been five years since I walked into Mr. DiLeo's homeroom. Over the years there have been a lot of good times. TDCAA Champs with the Baby Blues and Senior B's, OFSAA '98, the never ending subway ride, Can Geo with Mr. Chittle, English with Mr. Nicholson. Mr. McKernan's pre-game speeches, Peterborough '97 and '98, Grade 9 band (and my white socks), the clock in Mr. Grassi's class and Mr. Narducci's stories during Calculus. Thanks to my parents, all my teachers along the way and of course all the boys. I'll never forget my time here at St. Mike's.

The night before I wrote this adjunct, which was the night before it was due, I looked long and hard for some decent quote to squeeze in. But ... unfortunately I couldn't find one that was cheesy enough. So I leave you with these final thoughts- As I depart on my journey I leave behind this wonder-filled ... ummm no. Okay, once again- As I look back and cast a glance at the yellow bricks, I shed a tear ... ummmmmmm no. Makes you wonder- Was it worth the thousands of dollar if I can't even write this short retrospect? The answer will be revealed in time.

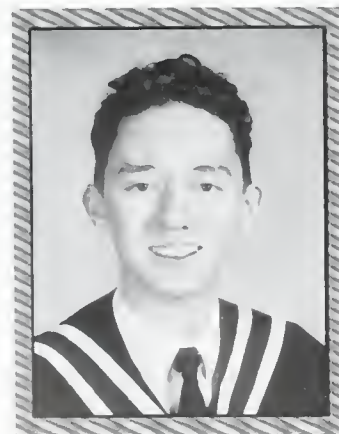

O'Grady, Michael

Oh, David

It's been four years at St. Mike's and it's finally time to say good-bye. Missed a lot going away for a year, but lots of memories of: gas competitions with McD, grade 9 Montreal Hockey Tournament, Harvey's gang and Halam, pulling all-nighters, being considered a 'headcase' (Mr. McKernan), 2 great years with Fr. Enright (A.K.A. Sadahra Oh), and always getting into trouble. Thanks to all the boys for the great memories, teachers, and especially to my parents and Jas. "When you see an old lady fall on the street, your first instinct is to laugh. But what if you were an ant and that old lady fell on you? Then it wouldn't be so funny."

Onceanu, Dumitru

What do 5 years of listening to classical music in the mornings, half a dozen ISU's (not to mention the all-nighter's), Mr. Coghlan's math classes, ski days, a handful of unbearable physics exams, "Monkey Does Math" in Calc. Class, "The Bloody Clock" (as it was often referred to), 3 years of Mr. Nicholson's English class, as well as morning spare (Sir I have yet to turn my back and walk away), and a handful of great teachers really amount to?.....A lifetime of memories! "Be yours the torch and hold it high"... And if you archery boys ever get a chance, split an arrow for me ... eh!

Pappalardo, Nicolas

Lord, Grant me the serenity to accept the things I cannot change, the courage to change the things I can, and the wisdom to know the difference. Thank you for the love of my family, who endure, support and inspire me. Thank you for the love of my friends, with whom I learn and grow, through joy and sorrow. Their love is yours. Thank you to the Basilian Fathers, who took me in from the wilderness and showed me your light and compassion. Thank you for those teachers who stood beside me - not against me - on the road of Truth. Thank you for the spirit-filled disciplines of cross country running, music, theatre, literature, history, theology. Your grace has brought me safe thus far, and grace will lead me home.

Amen (Great). Double Blue for life!

Pasta, Julian

First off, gotta tell my genitors how much I love them both. Peace to the notorious bridge G, A.L.P. still makin' it funky enough. Lil' ADSE. Won't forget the hooligans; Stevie, Foxy, McD, Seliff, Harvs, Don Volpe and the rest of the inmates that were down from day one. Stay Slanted! Can't forget Ch'ny and Claud. Who both took one for the team. Thanks to Mr. G in the shop and Mr. Narducci. I'll always remember the Classics: Gr. 11 Geo with Mr. Shannon, Mr. Lewis' Gr. 11 Religion class with Jazz, Suppa and Volpe and any other classes or spares I had with Volpe, keep disturbing it.

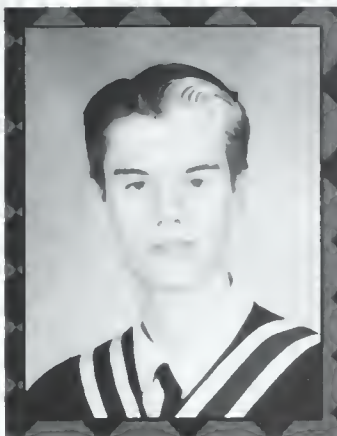

Paudyn, Gabriel

Pawziuk, Mark

Thank you, it was my privilege.

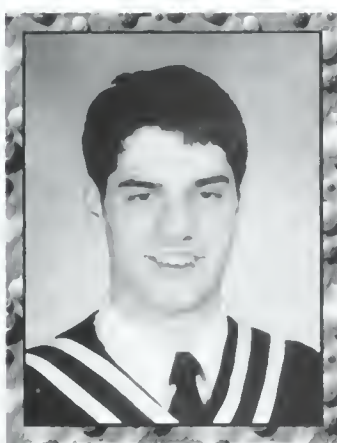

Perez, Richard

Five years, five too many!

Perry, Robert

Father Mohan, I wanted to come to this school. I struggled with my faults and overcame them. I studied, learned, and walked up and down the stairs to and from my classes for 5 years, persevering through all of my difficulties; and I did it myself!

Pippo, Chris

Boyz, "the fat lady has sung!" - our reign at St. Mike's has come to an end. The past five years will live with me forever '95 Baby Blue Champs (It's just too sweet!), Sr. A Hockey '97 (champs) - '98, '97 Sr. Soccer champs, OFSAA(x3), Metrobowl, Calc. with Mr. Nards, English with Fr. Enright, Gr. 11 gym with Mr. Chittle, Mafioso videos, Ponzi's classic comments, period 5/6 spare, Turkey Bowl, and 'Puleo '98. Thanx boyz (u know who u are), for all the great times and to the teachers for their guidance and support. Most importantly, I'd like to thank my parents for the loving support they provided and also for the 25 G's. Anyways, although we are going our own ways, the Grads of '98 will always be "the best there is, the best there was, and the best there ever will be!"

Plonka, Michael

In my tradition of keeping things simple, all I need to say is that a picture is worth a thousand words.

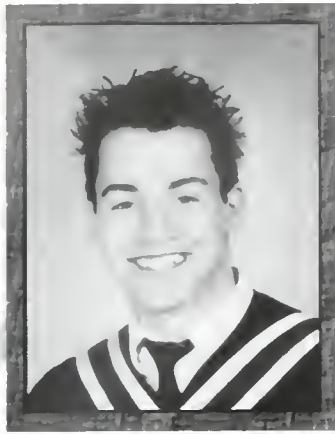

Ponessa, Christopher

Well my stay at SMC has come to a close and as I wipe the tears from my eyes, I know I'll always find solace in my memories here within these yellow bricks. First off, I'd like to thank all the coaches. You were mentors, leaders and visionaries, on the field and even off. To the cross country team for teaching me that for some, spandex is a privilege, not a right. To the Blue Herald, for their commitment to truth and one's own opinion. Although there are many others to thank, I close in thanking the Majors organization, whose tireless pursuit of academics gave me the strength to struggle on in the face of adversity. Thank you SMC for all the memories.

Ponziani, Christopher

A grad quote... why? I'm on the 8-yr program... what the hey, why not? Thanks to my mentors for coughing up their life savings, it wasn't all a waste. There is more to life than academics... well maybe not, but here are just a few good memories anyway. Grade 10 - Jr. Football and Baby Blues hockey. Grade 11 - Sr. Football, Baby Blues hockey, and Jr. Soccer. Grade 12 - Sr. Football, and Sr. "B" hockey. Grade 13 - Sr. Football, Sr. "B" hockey and Sr. Soccer. 5 TDCAA championships, thanks to all the boys, Regi, teammates and classmates, and even some teachers. Here's a quote from someone who knows what they are talking about: "When one man takes the idea of another man, it is plagiarism, but when one man takes the idea of many men, it is research." See ya all at the reunions.

Prete, Amedeo

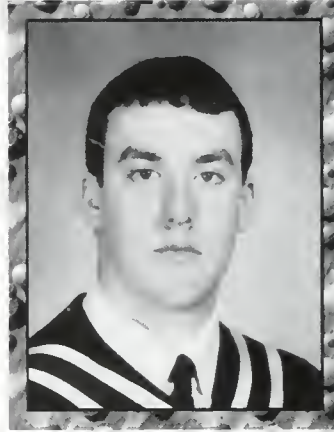

I have journeyed from a land that had no promise, no future, but at least it had girls! Somehow I ended up here (no regrets). The last three years have been a blast and the memories will never leave me. My cousin Adrian Fuoco, said it best. I confess to the following: driving the teachers crazy, dropping plates, and so forth. I also have to thank those who have left a lasting impression: Mr. McKernan "Sucks to your asthma!" Dallas Adamo - "Satapatala", "Whaaaaat" - McD. Mom, dad, and Chris (thanks for the love and cash) Dave... I mean Marc. The boys from the West side (cause it's the best side). And how could I forget Suitcase the Backstreet Boy, Mike Lirangi, Steve Ancic and everyone else (u no who u r). If it wasn't for you guys "Life [would be] just one damned thing after another."

Puttock, Robert

My only two years at St. Mike's went by in a flash. The memories, on the other hand, will last forever. A big thanks to the teachers, especially Mr. Coghlan for all of that OAC math excitement, for all the lessons learned and to all my friends for the good times had. My fondest memories include the weight room after school, the Buzzer games, intramural hockey, and of course, two years of Kerry Blues football. "SkyDome!!!" There isn't much left to say except:

"Quoth the Raven, 'Nevermore'" - Edgar Allen Poe

Rateliffe, Paul

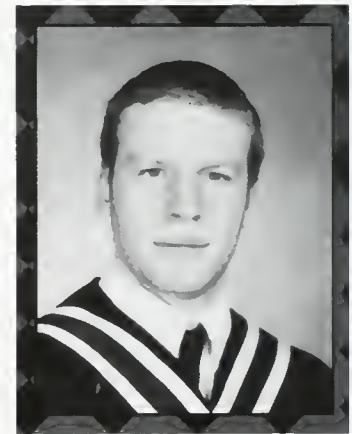

It has been a great 5 years at St. Mike's. Thanks to my parents, teachers, and coaches for getting me through it all. It has all been great fun, and it has left me with many great memories to carry through life. What I shall always remember is: avoiding questions in OAC physics, J.F.K. tutorials, a Titanic discussion while I am writing this grad quote, discussions in Algebra on anything but Algebra, and surviving Mr. Nicholson's English class knowing no grammar. It was awesome bringing home many TDCAA championships, in track and in hockey... while standing in front of the net! Thanks again to everyone it has been fun.

Rebstein, Terrence

What can I say? - It's over - Thank God. This will be one of those experiences that I will not forget and hopefully it has prepared me for the future that lies ahead.

Robichaud, Ryan

Rogers, Ronan

As I look back I can't believe all the crazy events that have happened: Gr. 11 math, Gr. 11 Religion, Enright for English, Quebec New Years '97, Sudbury '97 for OFSAA Soccer, internally decorating Stu's car, externally decorating Craig's car, the Blue Jay, Cooper's - "What's a Chihuahua?" - F. Lame; Semi-formal '97, English OAC in Ireland with Craig - we partied, got the marks, March Break '98 - Cuba; Grad party '98 - "Freedom!!"; OAC seminar - being the "ring-leader"; OAC Finite - the "Neil" calling; Grade 12 Phys-Ed, with Lenny and the boys; especially to my family and friends, and all the clubs, and parties that me and the boys hit. It's been good SMC

Rovito, Jason

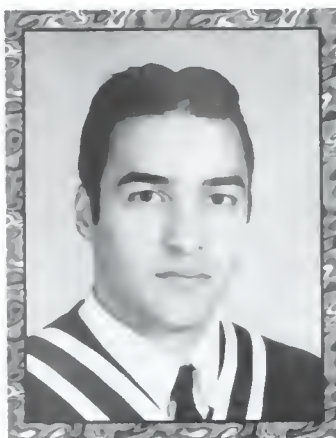

As grad approaches & I fight to hold back the tears, memories come to mind: Fr. Enright's "Mafioso Christmas"; room 214 discussions; gr. 12 "study halls"; period 2 spare chocolate milks; ISU fevers and all nighters; brise, as a jr.; Italy '96; Legends; Bingo; "Joe Vernon Day '97"; cottage party '97; working at the "slack bar"; Blue Herald crusades: Acapulco '98; junior football; grade 11 home correspondence; 90210; flying objects in physics; being cut by the Sr. B's, 5 years of IHL; the final Majors game; and the Billy Bees. I'd like to thank my parents for paying the bills and supporting me through this 5 year roller coaster. Thanks to those teachers that made the journey bearable. I'd also like to thank the guys (you know who you are); those who left and those who endured the struggle.

Roy, Marc

Je me souviens... the past 5 years have consisted of a rigorous cycle of getting up, going to school, going home, doing home work, and going to bed, 5 days a week. My time at SMC has gone by so fast that it seems like nothing more than a blur. The only moments that stand out are those away from school. From Cubao's, Elderados and the Green Office in my junior years to the Blue Jay, The Rail, and LM's (a.k.a. hunny bunny) in OAC. (As one can see there has been a maturing process over the past five years.) The "Stuff" I have learned here at SMC will soon long be forgotten but the memories will never die. Thanks!

"Goodbye Cruel World I'm leaving you today. Goodbye, Goodbye, Goodbye" -Pink Floyd

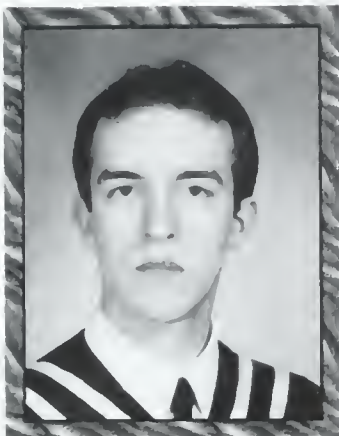

Ruffolo, Anthony

In remembering the last five years, I'd like to take this time to thank those teachers that have made a difference in my life. First to Mr. Niklesun who learned me good four tree years. To Mr. Barry who made sure that "your notebooks were open" every day in class. To Fr. Zinger who taught me everything I needed to know about nudism. To Mr. Thompson who made me realize what an idiot I was to take physics. To Father Mohan for making me "qualify." Finally to Mr. Pagano who dedicated room 214 to me after making me shave 35 times in the last two years. Without these teachers, I probably wouldn't be where I am today. Thanks it's been fun, later, Ruff!

Rusac, Robert

Indebted to my parents. Jazz 4 years, pure improv, 5'tet, number 1, level 4 (3,2,1)?, Bahamas '97, hazy balcony, pin-up, water-football, Titus, recroom (SQ1), talkin' philosophy ("it's all subjective, man"), Jesus est via. If it weren't for the last minute, no sleep, archery (28), ghettohall, erostratus. "It was ever in the desert that the truthful have dwelt, the free spirits, as masters of the desert" - Nietzsche. Metal with opethman. Praise boh! Kudos to the torchbearers, the last knights, and the cynics. Water, water, everywhere, Death and the Raven above, The shadow of the dome of pleasure floated midway on the waves, Hurry up Ps38 2122. Thanks to my parents and to the teachers that helped me. To my friends, salut! And they vanish sighing, "Our time is done." Jetzt ist's meine Zeit!

Sapiano, Thomas

My last five years at St. Mike's have been filled with great memories. I'll never forget staying late after school and coming in on weekends and summers to work on the yearbook, web page, newspaper or the school's networks. ACSL trips: Washington '96 & Utah '97. Thanks to M.G., S.W., A.M., S.A., J.K. and everyone else for a great five years. The school has prepared me well for the future that lies ahead!

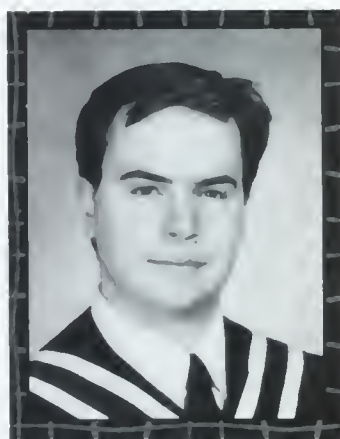

Shaughnessy, Sean

At St. Mike's, I have heard some pretty interesting things. On that note, rather than leaving some stupid quote which was said by someone you've never heard of, I'm leaving.

THE TOP TEN ST. MIKE'S QUOTES

10. "James, go get some snow."
9. "Sucks to your asthma!"
8. "I have had hram."
7. "d=1/2at + ... forget it, lets play Rocklines."
6. "I'll show ya one of my special moves, ya Boob!"
5. "I'm not moving 'till I get out of here!"

Who could forget the Baby Blues dream team, Del Tournament Best Goale, Triple Gold at Musicfest, Peterborough X2, Bahama paradise '97, "Cinderella" Goetz tournament, McGill roadies, and the Sr. "B" Machine. Special thanks to my mom, sister, brother, to all of my teachers, to JBX2, DC, NP, FW, RR, MC, JK, PR, and to all who made it count. Yeah, Baby, Yeah!

Simone, Michael

After having attended St. Michael's for 5 years there are a lot of things I'd like to say, and a lot of people I'd like to thank. I could say thanks to all my great teachers... but I won't. I could say thanks to my supportive parents... but I won't. I could say thanks to Mr. McKernan for bringing me back to "reality" in Gr. 9... but I won't. I could say thanks to Coffee Time for keeping me awake for 5 years... but I won't. And I could say thanks to all the boys (CAI CON & The IEAI (RIW) for all the great times... but I won't. All I want to thank is God Almighty that it's over! Thank you SMC for the best five years of my life. I'll never forget them.

Much love to those who have always been there for me. To the teachers that have helped me along the way, thank you for giving me the foundation to go on to greater things. To everyone else at school, thanks for the memories; it's been fun. Five years have come and gone. I've served my time.

Spencer, Andrew

I've lived through plenty of experiences at St. Mike's that I won't soon forget. The ones at the top of the list include: Mr. Marlborough's 9 science, Mr. Quinn's 10 religion, Fr. Enright's 11 English, Mr. Shannon's 12 geo, Coghlan's 13 calc, half price Thursdays, lunch in the weight room, intramural hockey, John 3:16, the making of John 3:16, shopping cart throwing, SMC golf team, Seinfeld video, mornings in the library, shoulder tapping Mihevc, Hartmann's fountain dive, negative tipping at the Jersey, Ed's "Dr. Kervorkian", and the century club at the cottage. Thanks to everyone who made these last five years great, especially Fr. Enright, Mr. Coghlan, and, of course, the Sports Cafe crew.

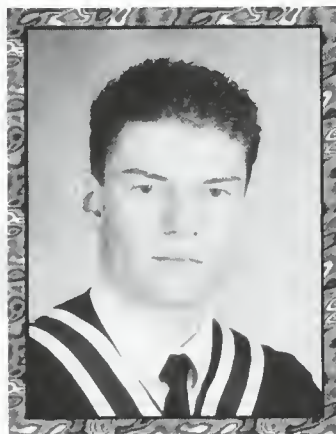

Spinozzi, Andrea

I'll remember: Our many ventures to Yonge and Dundas to enhance our education, Rovito's cottage party, the Mafioso Christmas (Gaz, Pip, De Faveri, and Mastro). Classes I'll never forget are Gr. 10 math (Jazz and Tucci), Gr. 11 math (dead end row: Sully, Vecch, Monti, Ronan, and Perry), Gr. 11 Comp. with Pip, Sully, and Stef, and Gr. 12 Phys-Ed with Mr. Chittle and the boys. Let's not forget "Joe Vernon Day", Turkey Bowl, and the Chinese Garden. Baby Blue Champs '95, OFSAA X-country x3, Sr. A Champs '97 and OFSAA in Sault Ste. Marie, Soccer '96, and the best ball hockey team ever, the Billy Bees '95 (Iron Curtain Defense) '98? These yellow bricks have been my home for four years and its been solid. Remember don't try to be a great man, just try to be a man and that's the bottom line.

Stewart, Ryan

Five years went by way too fast. Thanks to my parents for putting up the cash and being behind me through it all. It's been a great ride. Gr. 12 Phys-Ed with Lenny and the boys (the greatest class ever assembled), and Gr. 11 Bio and Geo with Mr. Shannon are the classes that made these yellow walls home. Thanks to all the boys: Sully, Lamie, Kwon, Dino, Pips, Jazz, Begin, Davies, Ronan, Oh, Mazur, Diamond, O'Grady, Bressan, and the rest of the boys. Good Luck. All the TOCAA medals, trips to Cooperstown, Peterborough, OFSAA, and SkyDome made it all worthwhile. It's over, but really it's just beginning. Thanks for the memories.

"Over the years, I've given myself a thousand reasons to keep running, but it always comes back to where it started. It comes down to self-satisfaction and a sense of achievement."
-Steve Prefontaine. Thanks to: my teammates for their support and friendship, the club for sending me to Nationals, my parents for everything, my coaches and teachers for showing me the way. To the team, bring home a red ribbon in my honour. Memories: so close too many times, OFSAA x9, Ato's divine intervention, Mono's sarcasm, Bergie's never ending stories, PB's dedication, the boycott, my shoe career, chicken on a bun, McQuaid x4, #'s 15-19, Nationals x4, Schmidt's porch, Balfour feuds, all-nighters, ECON seminar, double Nards, and 5 years on the greatest high-school team in provincial history.

Suchon, David

Being in a great school for 5 years makes for a long "thank you" list. Here goes ... first off, thank you to Mr. Pagano for putting up with me these last few years. Thanks as well to Mr. Thompson, Mr. Tessaro, Mr. McCann, Sr. Frances, Mr. Coghlan, and the now retired Mr. Marlborough for helping me when they didn't have to. Teacher's like these are the foundation of St. Mike's. The most thanks, however, goes to my parents and grand parents, all of whom made these 5 years possible. A special thanks goes out to my Mom for getting me up every morning (that ain't easy) and my friends for making the remainder worthwhile.

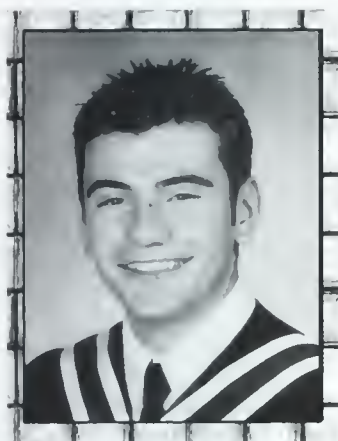

Sullivan, Michael Paul

Thanks to my friends for all their help both financially & non-financially. I couldn't have done it without you. My years at SMC have been filled with memories. OFSAA '96-'97 in the Sault, Skydome '97, the 425lb bomb, trip to Cooperstown, Computers class with Dino, Gr. 12 Phys-Ed with Mr. Chittle and the Boys. Good luck to: Tank, Stewy, Ronan, Begin, Davies, Diamond, O'Grady, Mazur, Joe, Jazz, Dino, Pips, Lox, and the rest. You guys helped the years go by in style & made them memorable. Good luck to the '97-'98 Baseball Blues (the best SMC team ever). I leave you with 3 quotes to live by: "You can't steal second with one foot still on first", "Be nice to people on your way up cause you never know who you'll need on your way down", "It's not what you know, it's who you know."

Suppa, Bruno

And so another chapter in the St. Mike's history books has been written. It's been five great memories. Let's see, we have wrestling in grade 9, the TDCAA Champion Jr. football team in grade 10 (just call me Mike Suppa), and how can I ever forget two great years with the Sr. "B" hockey team. We brought home the hardware boys (97/98)! Thanks to all the coaches and teachers who tried to make a St. Michael's man out of me. All the best to my fellow graduates. Boys, if you think these last couple of years have been tough, "sucks to your atismar" (Golding, Lord of the Flies), life has just begun. The Hart foundation will never die! Acapulco '98. J, Pips, Ponzi, Sig, Volpe, and to the rest of the hoys, keep it real!

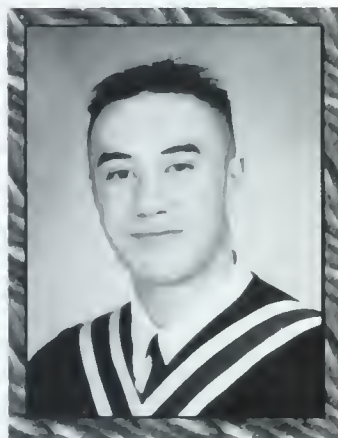

Terminesi, Jason

I'd like to thank all the teachers and the rest of the administration for making my time at St. Michael's memorable. I would also like to thank my parents because without them I could not afford to come to St. Michael's. To all my friends, now has come the time where we say our goodbyes and head into the future where hopefully St. Michael's and our various universities, in which we have put so much time and money into, have given us the skills in which we can make our millions of dollars and drive our exotic cars. If this doesn't come true, then I got the feeling that we may have got ripped off. Well good luck to everyone in the future.

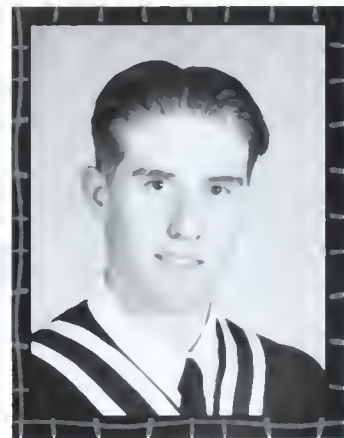

Joseph, Tesaro

At last! The long voyage through the halls of St. Mike's have come to an end. No more waking up at 6:00 a.m. and travelling an hour back and forth to school. The memories were plenty. Baseball from Gr. 10 - OAC, Gr. 9 basketball and volleyball, and the class jokes that were played especially in physics, biology and calculus. Thanks for everything boys. I would especially like to thank my family and close friends, Mira, Pete, John, Andrew, for their support. The future looks bright ... "It's all good!" -Joe Tesaro

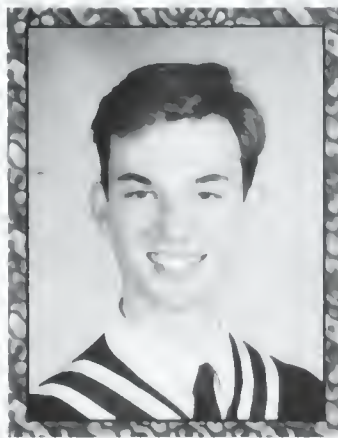

Trafford, Mark

I'd like to thank my parents for sending me to St. Michael's. It's been 5 tough memorable years. Thanks to all my teachers as well. I won't forget all the memories, including 5 years of cross country (3 OFSAA medals), 4 years of track and field, and 4 years of double blue hockey (2 TDCAA championships). It's been great boys ... thanks for the memories! The mark of SMC excellence has been put on you, be true to it and seize the day!

Trafford, Matthew

As I come to the end of my time at St. Michael's, I must first of all look back and thank my parents, both for their support and for putting up with a tuition which has grown faster than I have over the past 5 years. I must also thank the entire SMC community - teachers, priests, friends, and fellow students - for teaching me the culture and languages of Greece, Rome, and France and the beauty of music and literature, the meaning of our motto and the way to live it out, the rewards of justice and the joy of mercy, the bonds of friendship and the therapeutic quality of laughter, what makes a good man and how to treat a woman well, the reason of philosophy and the revelation of theology, the courage to face death and the prudence to live for eternity instead of the weekends. God Bless.

Vargas, Krisjon

For $30,000+ total support, for giving and sacrificing. I thank my family. For an incomparable education and making learning fun. I thank the SMC staff. For the heckling (h chat), the good times and the munchies. I thank my accomplices who watch my back, have a place to crash and supply the drinks the munchies & the rides. I want to leave with no regrets so I hate homework, ISUs & essays. I hate waking up and the sun's not out and having to go to school. I hate the colour yellow. I hate school without girls. I hate Chairs, I hate Fikes and wannabe hardcore punks, I hate 150 word write ups. I hate paying for parking. I hate expensive Majors merchandise. I hate poor student budget lunches, I hate computers that crash, I hate my car & I hate to leave.

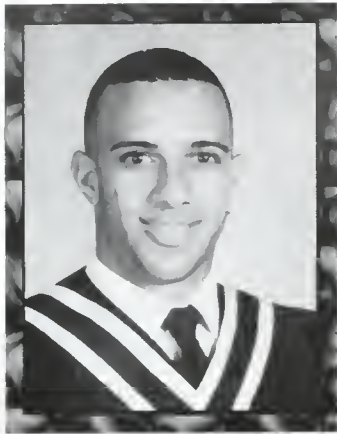

Varona, Michael

5 years at St. Mike's - $40000 in tuition - $3000 for books - 1000 broken pencils and leaky pens + 2 many ISU's + 2 little time + 5000 all-nighters + 5 cases of ISU flu + 50 teachers + 1 family + 10 priests + 150 friends + 1 million memories + 1 billion inside jokes + 2 little space = 1 finished grad quote + 1 sigh of relief + 1 man ready to take on the world, with double blue in his veins (thanks to the corporation).

Vecchio, Adrian

The diplomas have been handed out, the grad party is over. These yellow bricks (more of a light cream) have been an interesting backdrop for my 93-98 term. Calc with Mr. Narducci, JFK theories, & the French Revolution. All these memories will stay with me. The lessons and the laughs from my 5 years will certainly last a lifetime (or at least until Cancun). However, these memories pale in comparison to the blast I had over the last 5 years with the boyz: Montesano, Ruff, Setti, Vince, Mike, even the mighty CFG. Highlights of our times here: 5 years of CFG, driving home from the Government, chilling at Aida's, Coffee Time, Woodbridge & St. Clair, and the Holiday Inn Express. "The time is gone the song is over, thought I'd have something more to say" - Pink Floyd

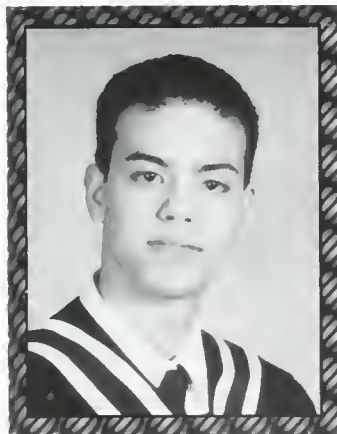

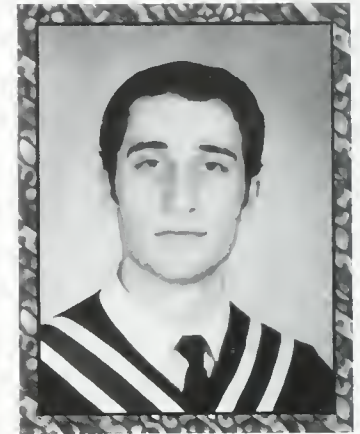

Vernon, Joseph

With every sunset comes the faithful anticipation of brighter days ahead. Thanx to my family for supplying the necessary support that enabled me to survive a tough 5 years. Thanx to God for giving me strength and to the boys for making it fun. To the past, present, and future Kerry Blues, to JS for putting up with me, to MP and RE for always being there, and to all the grads: I'll never forget you. A lot of things have changed at this school over the last few years, but the one true constant that is often overlooked by the powers that be is the quality of friendships made here at SMC. Keep it real boyz,

Volpe, Massimo

There are those who think they know, & there are those who do know. Rob, Julian ... you've earned your places at my table. To the staff, who I appreciate, thank you for everything. Especially Mr. Walsh, Mr. Chittle, and Mr. Pagano, you guys are the greatest. And to those who made these bricks yellow, mission accomplished. You know who you are, don't stop now. What's up with James and Carmelo, straight jackets or what? Just kidding guys. Now let me sign off with some words to the Volpe family, Luc, Flav ... what you started, I finished. Leti, I know I made the "Abbey honour roll". Pa, we both know how to play politics, only your getting S. I'll pay you back some day. And Ma, I love you, you always knew it. Jesus I'm taking you with me. Never doubt ... "Always Believe" - Ultimate Warrior

Wagner, Sean

Things I regret not doing during my five years at St. Mike's:

- Distilling water, among other liquids, in Grade 10 Science.
- Getting everyone in the school to call me "Tiger".
- Programming all the computers in the Mac lab to play "Mary had a little lamb" in unison.
- Refilling the tank in Mr. Coghlan's '83 Olds.
- Yelling "SHAAZAAM!" during an English exam in the gym.
- Replacing the morning music tape with "The Greatest Hits of John Tesh"

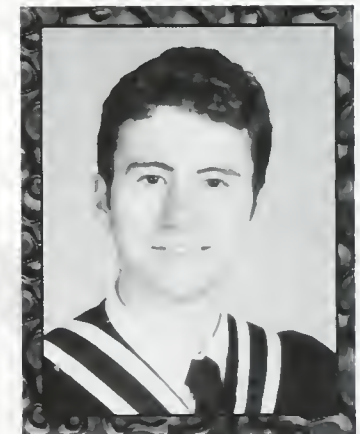

The list goes on, but in the end of it all I've accomplished more at St. Mike's than what I have failed to do.

Walters, David

In the past 5 years, my mind has expanded from the narrow dimensions I possessed before. I have learned to accept different things on the basis of what they are. I have learned to listen without prejudice. Special thanks to all those who have enlightened me these past 5 years. May God bless you, and may you all succeed in pursuing your goals!

Your kid: Well, I think he looks like a freak.

I came to this school 5'3"; I leave this school 5'4". One inch really isn't a lot. I believe my physical growth is inversely proportional to my growth as a person. You could say that my experience at SMC has been a quest, a 5 year mission to explore myself. I guess. At the end of this five year mission, I can conclude that I really am a cool guy (yeah right). I couldn't be the cool guy that I am if it wasn't for the experiences that SMC had to offer me: 5 years of hand, Choir practice, French Club ("Oui, Georges"), Dr. Barr (my only speaking role in an SMC play), debating pomography vs. art, Monday matinees. Hey, how ya' doin', Mr. McKernan! I'd like to thank SMC, and all those who helped shape who I am. If it is true that the blood of noble men is blue, then we men of SMC have the bluest blood of them all.

Information Systems Management

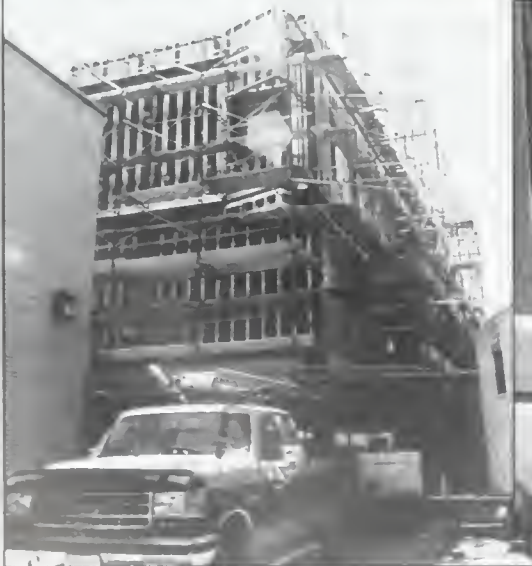

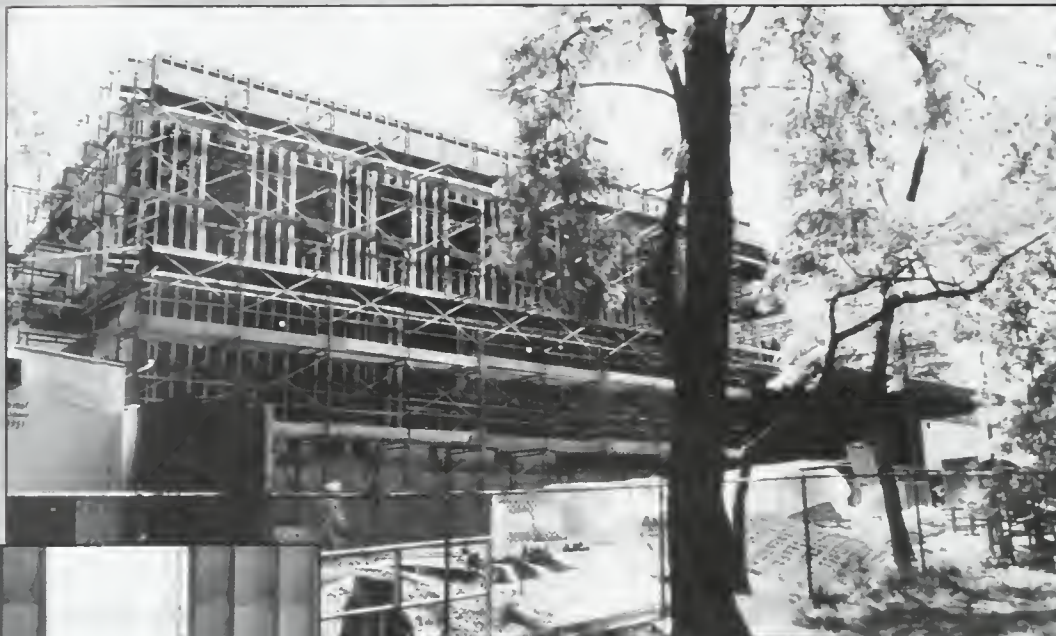

Mr. Radu 'radman' Ghitescu
Manager of Information Systems

This year St. Michael's has emerged to the forefront of technology. Over this last year we have seen our second computer lab open as well as connecting our library with high-speed connection to the internet (256-kbps ISDN connection). Our website has moved to spread across a small server farm stored away in the old archive room. Overseeing all of this progress is our hard-working MIS, Mr. Radu Ghitescu and our Human Resources director, Mr. Greg Hook. With the help of OAC students Tom Sapiano and Sean Wagner, they have led this school towards the next millenium

Construction

Mr. Michael Duffy

The Bulding Fund -The Dream Becomes a Reality

Under Father Mohan's inspiration and Mr. Mike Duffy's management , the funds necessary to maintain St. Michael's as the foremost Catholic boys' school in Canada are being sought in a variety of ways. It has been recognized that these funds must come from corporate sources as well as private individuals. It is St. Michael's graduates in the future, as many now do, who will head such corporations and lend their talents to make their communities better places in which to live.

Present St. Michael's students are now enjoying the finest , state of the arts conditions in our new wing. This wing has increased by at least a third, the floor space of the school and has given the students unparalleled opportunities for education.

Father Mohan has stated many times that we must bring our school completely up to date as we enter the twenty -first century. We see his vision beginning its fulfillment as we walk around our school today. In the near future we will see the second phase of the building plan put into execution and our chief fund raiser, Mr. Michael Duffy assures us that things are in hand that will see this also a reality.

St. Michael's Built on Dreams Musical Gala

Our tradition of excellence in the dramatic arts was begun by Father George Phelan C.S.B. and refined and expanded by Father Norman Fitzpatrick C.S.B., by Father Robert Mc Kinnon C.S.B. who was assisted by Mr. Martin Story and many former and present teachers who have devoted themselves to the arts of the stage.

Under the leadership of Mr. Martin Story and Mr. Dan Pendergast a dynamic committee has been formed to raise funds for our proposed auditorium. The plan involves an elaborate staging of a fantastic gala musical evening at the Ford Centre for the Performing Arts on October twenty-seventh.

St. Michael's has had an enviable reputation for excellence in the performing arts

Musically the tradition began with the first St. Michael's Band formed over fifty years ago under the internationally renowned Professor Cesar Borre and carried on famously by Mr. Jon Guerriere and into the present by Mr. Paul Pietrkiewicz.

The Built on Dreams Gala will feature the many talented men and women who began their entertainment careers here at St. Michael's and have established enviable reputations in theatre and in concert halls in Canada and abroad.

Our auditorium will be built on the dreams of the future and the traditions of the past.

Class of 1998

Valedictory Address Nicholas Pappalardo

Basilian Fathers, honoured guests, faculty, administration, families, and fellow graduates: Today we all gather as friends of Saint Michael's. It is an honour to stand before you today as a member of the Graduating Class of 1998. In fact, it is a dream come true. Today is a great day, but it could be in vain, if we do not stop to take a second look at where we've been, who we are today, and how we will proceed down the road of life. Plato tells us that "the unexamined life is not worth living." As graduates, educators, family members, friends, and Christians, we are compelled to take those words to heart, especially today. We have memories to cherish, life lessons to put into practice, and a lot to be proud of. But before we examine, let us first reminisce...

Five years ago in September, we entered the hallowed halls of Saint Michael's with the brightness of youth, and the scrawniness of niners. Afraid of our own shadows, we scurried from class to class, hoping desperately not to make eye contact with the bearded OACers, or to do the uncool thing. Riveted in our yellow chairs, our feet planted on yellow tiles, staring at yellow bricks, we listened to the galvanizing speeches of Mr. McKernan about "getting the lead out," and the homilies of Fr. Mohan about becoming real men, and wanting to go to this school. In awe, we wondered how we might someday come to emulate those athletic, intellectual, and confident grade thirteen giants.

Over time, our fears melted away to reveal a cocky, zealous pride in the Double Blue; our silence became rowdiness or argumentative eloquence; our dreams of becoming sports supermen translated into arduous workouts, humbling tryouts, goals and touchdowns, locker room bonding, gracious victories and humbling defeats; and our belief that we knew everything was soon replaced by an awareness of our need to learn. An incredible amount of hard work and dedication went into these diplomas - including hundreds of tests, late nights, early mornings, and short weekends. Scholars, athletes, and even briscola enthusiasts were molded by the Saint Mike's experience. And today we stand proud, cherishing the memories acquired, and saluting the people who made them possible.

All the way through, we never stood alone. We had the constant support of the Basilian Fathers, whose passion for education has provided us with Saint Michael's itself. The lay teachers are no less dear to our hearts, educating in the Basilian tradition of "Goodness, Discipline, and Knowledge," and infusing in their students the Double Blue Spirit. Together, they have provided us with a sound springboard for life, a strong start. They also leave us with little particulars to treasure. How can we forget the Quintessential puns of Mr. Quinn, garden duty and sporadic water gun fights with Father Zinger, Latin sing-alongs with Mrs. Morra, cigar-scented tests with Father Enright, Kung Fu with Mr. Lewis, Mr. Paolini's overheads, after-school discussions with Mr. McCann, a Mr. Thompson physics test (as early as grade nine), a Mr. Fischer "Oh Later," or a reminder by Mr. Grassi to stop looking at the clock or by Mr. Di Leo to "stop di tawking." In what other high school cafeteria are there spontaneous eruptions of coordinated clapping, or gregarious cheering at the sound of a crashing plate? Where else do they celebrate Raccoon Day, have halftime analogies as pungent as those of Mr. Forbes, or get excited about "geo" like Mr. Chittle does. True, we learned how to conjugate verbs, integrate equations and geographical concepts, appreciate art and history thanks to Mr. Monohan and Barry, orchestrate science experiments, and reciprocate philosophical questions. But we have also mastered the Hoikety Choik and Bubba Lou, discovered the value of a blue note, acquired the skill of timing our beard growth in such a way as to have the privilege of shaving during a philosophy or seminar class. We've learned how to get the most doughnuts for our dollar thanks to Mr. Coughlan, how to enjoy the natural beauty of a ravine thanks to Mr. Dudzinski, and Mr. Narducci even disclosed the identity of the third gunman on the grassy knoll. Teachers call us to be our better selves, and for this we shall be forever grateful.

Let us not forget the colourful cast of characters who make this class what it is: Ponziani with his unbridled enthusiasm at sporting events, Coccia's locker room wrestling lessons, the amazing way Varona, Lamie and Plonka combine brawn with brains, 'Tucci 4 prez, Settimio's gettone election campaign, Lawless' noble endeavour to revive Rock Night with social justice, Sapiano's computer hacking skills, Kevin De Souza's elaborate teacher-stumping questions, De Faveri's soccer prowess, Striowski's gazelle-like routine, Dilworth's growth spurt, Gasdia living in the weight room, Kielty's long bombs, Stan's irrelevant yet entertaining questions, the arrival of our Inuit friends Jackson and Pujj, Leckie's blue and yellow notes, O'Grady's fastball, Medina's coolness, Milway's witty sports announcements, Rob Perry's seminars, Volpe and Pasta plotting at the back of any class, Puttock and Begin's stories about the countryside, Barnes, Bond, and the list goes on, over one hundred and fifty strong. Amid the wonderful diversity of personality types, one thing remains certain: we came as strangers and we leave as brothers.

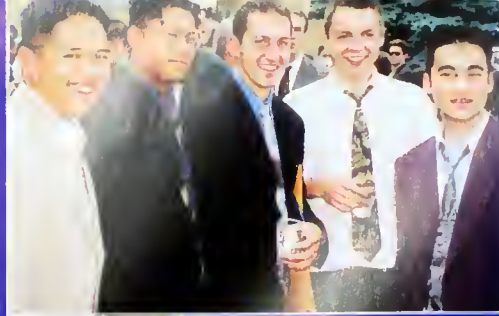

It is today that we ask ourselves who we are, and what we have learned. Our innumerable sports championships can attest to our physical and psychological discipline. The sheer number of those going on to post-secondary education testifies to our success in the disciplined pursuit of knowledge, and to the success of those who taught us how to learn for ourselves. We have understood the significance of a strong tradition that works. And most importantly, we have been given the opportunities of a supportive Christian community which upholds the quest for Truth. Because of this, we know that in times of joy or sorrow, hope or despair, comfort or loneliness, we are sustained in the Love of God. Our parents are the most evident manifestation of unconditional love in our lives. Not only do they foot the bills, but they support us in our endeavours and look out for our best interests. We would be truly foolish to think that we made it here today on our own, or that we will henceforth be alone. Through everything, Jesus stands beside us. The book of proverbs reminds us to "Trust in the Lord with all our heart, and to not lean on our own understanding. In all our ways we must acknowledge Him, and He will make our paths straight." Today, gathered in one place, for one last time, we become a part of history. As our names are inscribed in the book of Saint Michael's, we share something in common with men of ages gone by, and with men of generations to come. You can almost feel them sitting here, in our places, in our selves, with that heightened sensitivity to the promises of life, that youthful anticipation. With that same vital brightness we experience today, the Class of 1997 assembled for their graduation.

With a bittersweet feeling in our hearts, we know that one of them, Graeme Ruthven, watches us today from heaven. Thus is the brevity of life, it can be snuffed out suddenly and painfully. It always hurts to see a friend go, but if we can learn at least one thing from Graeme's death, it is this: we must not take life for granted. This is not a dress rehearsal, it's the real thing. We have so much to look forward to, thanks in large part to parents, country, God, and school. We stand on the shoulders of giants. Much has been given to us, and much is expected. Merely going through life by surviving or getting by isn't enough. We must truly live. Carpe Diem, seize the day. We must dare to dream, and boldly strive for the realization of those dreams. We must challenge ourselves, dig deeper, reach higher. Of course it won't be easy, but we can endure with the hope that what we do has meaning, and can make a difference. After all, knowing what we know about Christ, what is there we cannot accomplish?

So, "what's it all about Alfie?" A true Saint Mike's man will tell you that it's about being Christ to other people, being sincere and honest, compassionate, merciful and strong in character, selfless instead of selfish, loving and committed to our neighbours. We are free, and we are therefore responsible for ourselves. Let us not allow this day, or any other, to be in vain. Let's take time to stop, reflect, pray, and enjoy the beauty life has to offer. Down the road we will be glad that we took the time to do so today. God is our witness. May He bless us all, as we celebrate our lives in His name.

LIVE FROM THE SHIVER DOME

St. Michael's Arena owes its existence to the hardy students who maintained the early outdoor rinks of the 50's and 60's on the property. It became apparent to those who worked in athletics that if we were to excel in hockey a covered rink had to be built.

Fueled by the enthusiasm of staff and students, the various parent groups operating in the school undertook the financing of the present arena. Many events were held to help raise the necessary cash but most notable was the contribution of The Quarterback Club which held weekly draws and bingos for over fifteen years.

The original building also included a Music Department and Woodworking Shop. It is interesting that the present arena occupies almost the same site as the uncovered outdoor rink of the 50's. The building was opened on November 7th, 1960 and was inaugurated with a game refereed by Maurice "Rocket" Richard of the Montreal Canadiens and Frank "King" Clancy of the Toronto Maple Leafs.

they made the championship their own.

Aras Ignatavicius, Blair Hogg and Chris Clark all had good seasons. Aras was the MVP of the Queen's tournament and All-Star at the Jarvis. Chris Clark had a strong showing all year. Chris made the Metro Toronto All-star squad

Blair Hogg led the team in assists from the point guard position and captured All-star honours at the Queen's Tournament. With nine of the twelve players returning, next season looks very promising.

Dedication, teamwork, never say never, these are a few of the words that characterize the 1998 Senior Azzurri.

Having completed their exhibition games with a respectable 2 wins, 2 ties and 1 loss the Senior Azzurri went on to a strong second place finish in their regular season with an undefeated record of 2 wins and 2 ties.

They romped through the quarter finals and in the semis they defeated the highly touted Neil Mc Neil, thus advancing to the finals for the second straight year.

Their hopes for OFSAA gold were dashed when they lost the final game in quadruple overtime and the resulting penalty kick round.

Next year with a fantastic team returning the Azzurri are in a great position to win it all in 1999.

They won the divisional play-offs but were defeated in the quarter-finals. The Junior Azzurri showed character and skill every time they stepped on the field

SMC wishes Mr. Monahan a fond farewell.

Mr. Patrick Monahan

The 1997-98 academic year was the thirty-first and last for one of the school's most illustrious teachers. Patrick Monahan decided to retire in June of 1998 after a long and distinguished career in teaching and coaching.

Mr. Monahan, a graduate of the SMC class of 1963, joined the teaching staff in the autumn of 1967 after graduating from the University of Toronto. At U of T he had been a member of several CIAU Championship Varsity hockey teams.

Mr. Monahan became History Department Head in 1968 and during the 1970's coached a number of the school's hockey teams including a provincial championship midget-age squad. He was also a member of the 1974 Allan Cup Championship Barrie Fly-

In the late 1970's Mr. Monahan took up competitive distance running and established himself as one of the country's top age class competitors.

Patrick Monahan as a student at St. Michael's

At the same time he joined the coaching ranks of the SMC Cross Country and Track and Field teams. During his tenure as coach the Cross Country Blue Harriers have won nineteen consecutive TDCAA overall titles and twelve OFSAA titles. The track team has won fifteen league and several provincial titles during the same era.

Mr. Monahan's influence on hundreds of young distance runners has been overwhelming. In the classroom his dynamic teaching style attracted a large number of students to the discipline of History. Surely, his retirement is a significant loss for the St. Michael's community, though we are sure he will continue to play a role especially in the co-curricular realm.

A typical day in history class

Once the playoffs end for the regular school teams, the Intramural hockey League swings into action with a group of students who love hockey.

In the Senior Division the Bruins topped the regular season standings with 3 wins. Andrew Spencer had 8 goals and 5 assists to lead his team in scoring while Pete Higgins had 12 points. Robert Sztuka of the Gorgeous Georges led the League with 10 goals and 7 assists. In playoff action the Gorgeous Georges eliminated them, to make the finals. It looked like the Bruins were on their way to a championship but the Burners who edged out the Red Wings in the semis turned them back in order to be crowned IHL Senior champions.

The Junior Division had 3 teams, the Paddys, Beavers and Ice Dogs with 3-1 records. Their playoffs had the Pileons beat the Flyers only to be defeated by the Beavers. The Paddys ousted the Ice Dogs which left the Paddys and Beavers in the finals. After two tie games a winner was eventually declared as the Beavers beat the Paddys 5-4.

Fr. Enright stresses the idea that volunteers are essential for the IHL to operate. This year was no exception as the Shaughnessy brothers, Sean and Kevin practically ran the league, score-kept and refereed. Steven Ancie and John Oldman did statistics while Mark and Matt Mcrae along with Matt Napier refereed a majority of games. Other volunteers included Dave Oh, John Barnes, Paul Venditti, Neil Dilworth, Adrian Kremblewski, Chris Myslicki, D'arcy McConvey, Paul o'Regan, Andrew Adams and Bob Hastings. A special thanks goes out to Rink Manager Mr. Rob Tunney and Paulo Pergola for the help and patients.

Our 1998 Senior Baseball team finished in first place in the regular season. They ranked no lower than fourth place in Ontario according to the Toronto Star poll. They were triumphant over the Rochester McQuaid team in this year's SkyDome game and for the second consecutive year they won the TDCAA Championship. At the annual athletic banquet, it was noted that they posted a 7-4 record but they finished one victory shy of going to SkyDome again for the Prentice Cup. However, considering that they expect a strong group of upcoming junior players plus the returning seniors for next year's team, they closed the season with optimism.

This year St. Michael's baseball hosted the Metro Invitational for players under 17 years of age. Twelve teams took part in the tournament, which was divided into "A" and "B" pools. The purpose was to allow the players to develop their skills under game competition and also to showcase their talent for the benefit of coaches and mentors. Each year the Metro Invitational is held as a fall event. Our "A" team reached the final and the "B" team was in the semi-final.

The midget team, the eventual OFSAA champions, poses here after winning the Cardinal Carter and Iona Invitational meets.

"It's on the board!"

Congratulations to graduating team captain Marc Striowski who earned an athletic scholarship at Notre Dame University.

The 1997 season was a very successful campaign for the Blue Harriers. The team won its 19th consecutive TDCAA overall boys championship and its 31st and 32nd OFSAA medals from the championship midget squad and the third place seniors. The midget's victory marks the 12th time in the last 17 years that SMC has won an OFSAA title continuing to make us the winningest boys team in provincial history. Thanks goes out to all the coaches for their efforts especially to head coach Mr. Paul Barry for his relentless dedication. Congratulations to the team on a whole for a fine season.

Good luck to veteran graduating seniors: Patrick Breech, Steve Conte, Neil Dilworth, Erich Hartman, Robert Leckie, Jakub Nowak, Nicolas Pappalardo, Chris Ponesse, and Marc Striowski.

Every morning in Africa a gazelle wakes up. It knows it must run faster than the fastest lion or it will be killed. Every morning in Africa a lion wakes up. It knows it must run faster than the slowest gazelle or it will starve. It doesn't matter whether you are a lion or a gazelle, when the sun comes up, you'd better be running.

Four of our wrestlers were invited to OFSSA this year. They were: Frank Micelli, Ryan Rypstra, Marcus Salvatori and Gabor Lygeny..

Over the past four years Mark Coccia has been an outstanding wrestler for the school although an injury forced him to watch the OFSSA finals this year.

The wrestling team is well represented throughout the various grades and coaches Mr. Mike Zahra and Mr. Charles Lewis are looking forward to a promising future for their team

THE HISTORY OF ST. CLARE HOUSE

The original St. Clare House was a lofty two-story structure with a roomy basement. It was acquired from the Sisters of St. Joseph who once occupied the St. Michael's property and was used as a residence for orphan boys. At that time it was known as Sacred Heart Orphanage. So it was on the property when the Basilians moved St. Michael's College School to this site from its original downtown location on Clover Hill (Bay and St. Joseph Sts.)

It's first use by St. Michael's was as a residence for boarding students, the large room in the basement serving as a recreation room. When the residential school was discontinued this became a band hall and the rooms throughout the house were renovated to classrooms. The two largest rooms were the art studios located on the second floor. The present structure replaced this stately mansion and is a relocatable structure (portable). The present St. Clare House is a home for a varied number of classes from art to religion.

THE BLUE HERALD

School Newspaper*

Moderator: Mr. Bissonette
Editors: Jason Rovito, Johnathan Hyatt
Layout Editor: Tom Sapiano
Assistant Layout Editors: Sean Wagner, Glen Tam

The Blue Herald has been a proud tradition for those wishing to voice their comments and concerns not only about this school but for student life in general. Unlike other publications of the school the Blue Herald holds the honour of being the most frequently published among the Tower and The Blue banner. It is this that makes the Blue Herald so efficient an instrument for interchange of ideas between staff and students. The 1997-98 school year was a milestone for the Blue Herald both in its staff leadership and its production facilities. Mr. Bissonette assumed leadership of an enthusiastic staff and the whole program became computerized, enabling the paper to print late-breaking news in record time

The Blue Herald is the official student newspaper of SMC. Being the voice of the student body, its purpose is to form a bridge between the students, teachers and community. The layout of the newspaper is prepared by the hard working staff in the school's PC lab. Students are encouraged to contribute to the newspaper, through articles, photos and layout. The Blue Herald is published approximately three times a year. Funding of the paper is paid for through advertising by the local community and by the student activity fees.

EACH YEAR THE CLUB SPONSORS EVENTS OF POLITICAL INTEREST. A VISIT TO THE LEGISLATURE AT QUEEN'S PARK TO SEE OUR PROVINCIAL REPRESENTATIVES AT WORK(?) IT IS ONE OF THE MORE POPULAR POLITICAL EVENTS. AFTER SCHOOL MEETINGS INVOLVE DISCUSSIONS OF THE DECISIONS MADE IN THE PROVINCIAL LEGISLATURE AND THE HOUSE OF COMMONS. THE STOCK MARKET CLUB

JAKUB NOWAK, MIKE VARONA AND MIKE ASH, OFFICERS OF THE SMC STOCK EXCHANGE PRESENT A SIZEABLE CHEQUE TO FATHER MOHAN.

The Stock Market Club exists so that the incipient business men of St. Michael's may get a taste of trading and selling stocks on the market which nevertheless awards their trading skills with cash prizes. Simulated trading is based on the T.S.E. The club has the greatest number of members of all St. Michael's Club (over one hundred). Meeting once a week members conclude shrewd deals and at the end of the season are able to donate a percentage amounting to several hundreds of dollars to the school and the remainder in the form of prizes to the top traders. This year SMC Stock Exchange co-president, David Crudele (right) was pleased to announce that OAC student Steve Conte's portfolios placed first, second and third place, earning him a healthy reward for his judgement.

The Green Council

This year's group of green enthusiasts gathered together once again for the 1997/98 school year and were ready to tackle what is among the most important problems that we face today ... the misuse of our natural environment. Under our moderator the guru of green, Mr. Quinn, and direction from our new president, the group took flight on a year-long journey. Weekly meetings were held, discussions took place, and important tasks were accomplished from our successful annual fundraisers, to our guest speakers, our continued influence within the school administration, and our frequent letter writing campaigns, we have addressed and responded to issues close to home, and as far away as Newfoundland and British Columbia. Through dedication and commitment the Green Council has achieved yet another successful year, and it is hoped that as our school expands and approaches the new millennium so will the Green Council look towards the future with optimism, as an opportunity to expand our horizons.

Society for Justice

The Society for Justice, through organizations such as Amnesty International, the Canadian Catholic Organization for Development and Peace, and Stirrings (a Basilar social justice newsletter) aims to help victims of social injustice and human rights abuses. Because our main method of accomplishing this goal is through letter-writing campaigns, the postal strike in October forced us to think about other methods to accomplish our goal. In the new year we posted a bulletin board in the cafeteria and organized Rock for Trillium with the student government, which showcased even of SMC's bands. The proceeds from Rock for Trillium, our most successful fundraising campaign yet, went to Camp Trillium - a camp for children 8-18 living with cancer. The future looks promising as we hope to soon become a recognized member of Amnesty International and continue working towards our goal.

Audio-Visual Department

Moderated by Mr. Geniole, this club is mainly a service for teachers and students. The club provides equipment to be used in classes and extra curricular activities. Members of the club spend a great deal of time cleaning and maintaining equipment and instructing others in the proper operation of high tech machines. Club members are also called upon to record certain events in the school year that are significant enough to be kept on file in the archives.

Members of the photo video club are dedicated to exploring the graphic arts by means of film and video tape. In addition to learning to process film from cameras to print they also perform a useful function in the school by preparing presentations for sports and other extra-curricular activities. They also produce a video for display in Toronto's schools so that interested students may get a view of St. Michael's prior to attending it. Led by their moderator Mr. Ian Thompson, students become experts in the art of mixing and editing tapes. The presentation of their sports review of the year is always a highlight of the annual sports banquet.

THE LITERARY MAGAZINE

The Forgotten Word - Matthew J. Trafford

"The Lord confused the language of all the earth"

To punish the tower-builders who had over-guessed it's worth.
And so suddenly one didn't know words another spoke,
And no one saw the signals one was sending up in smoke,
Near the Mississippi stood a sole drum-beating brave,
Another, near Lasceaux, was deafly painting in a cave,
Someone wrote a letter, but the receiver couldn't read,
And then a man named Bell said "It's a telephone we need!",
But the phone line was busy, and the T.V. had some cracks,
A woman couldn't get her message 'cause something jammed her fax,
And a young man checked his modem, the up-link seemed to fray:
It's the age of *In*communication in which we live today.

Why? - Martin Chodorek

To run my fingers through her memories,
And to find truths in me like truths in her.
My mind's locked doors call to her hidden keys -
Her warm words that cause cold embers to stir.
Perhaps at first there will be just a spark -
From these can hot infernos quickly rage
Which throw a brilliant light on what is dark
And free the frozen heart from icy cage.
I know her well, although we have not met.
In my short time, this comes as no surprise.
I long to be in her eternal debt;
Paid while I gaze at ever-loving eyes.
But now time passes slowly till we meet
And may dance to the sunset down our street.

A Ray of Hope - Matthew Baggetta

How can there be so much hate
When everyone is full of love.
Why does all that we create
Become so harsh and rough?

All the killing, all the death
Plague mankind like a disease.
Children, war torn, drowned of breath
Their dying words: Help me... please!

Who can stop this cruel reign?
The answer to that no one knows.
To end the sorrow, hate, and pain
It must stop lest the final blow.

What we need is a true leader
One who's brave, kind and strong.
He will rise, and defend the meager
He will fight hard, and true and long.

Already born is this person
Hidden from sight to the world,
Yet when the time comes he will hasten
His war cry shall ever be heard.

But as we wait in the eve of doom
One thing for certain we all shall see
Our power will rise above the gloom
We'll roam the earth far, wide and free.

The French Club offers an opportunity to experience French culture, film, cuisine, and language in a relaxing and sociable atmosphere. This year Le Club maintained several annual events such as Crepe Day on Mardi Gras, Le Fete des Rois, and our Christmas gathering. We also spent some time working on a presentation of the Dr. and Mrs. Vandertramp verbs for the Gr. 9 students. We have also seen several French films, both on video and in the theatre (the most notable of which was Ma Vie en Rose, seen only by Les Vrais Hommes). This year marks the 5 year anniversary for Le Club as it graduates the following 5 year members: Matt Trafford, Mike Varona, Mike Plonka (hon.), & Mike Ash.

SMCWeb

The dawn of the information age is upon us. In a world where words, pictures and movies can travel from the ends of the world in a matter of milliseconds, information is key. SMCWeb was created three years ago to give the 'global villiage' a doorway to the St. Michael's community. For the last two and a half years, Tom Sapiano and Sean Wagner have evolved the site to become what it is today.

The site provides the outside world with a view of our school, its sports and its clubs. It gives Alumni access to sports scores and daily happenings at St. Michael's. The Blue Herald Online further displays our school and its students to the entire world.

STUDENT GOVERNMENT

1997 -1998

Sports Council and Information

Director are added

Variety and change were the means for the Student Council to produce a very successful year. For purposes of organizing and producing events the new Sports and Information Council succeeded admirably exceeding the hopes of those involved. Successes this year included the Backyard Bash, Tailgate Charlies BBQ, Snowfall '98, Snake Eyes, Best Seats in the House and promotion of Majors games, Toonie Bin Sales, and let's not forget the Blue Road Trip.

These high profile events might be seen by many as all we do. In truth the bulk of our work goes unnoticed. In order for the council to keep things running and up-to-date. Many meetings must be held with the administration and special interest groups around the school. Information sessions have been held in St. Michael's hall in order to gauge student reaction and disseminate information as it breaks. In these meetings students are encouraged to express their opinions. THE STUDENT GOVERNMENT CONGRATULATES THE STUDENTS FOR MAKING THIS YEAR SO SUCCESSFUL

Not all is talk with the Student Council for they are also the means of helping charitable organizations in the community with food and money. Some of those helped were, The Good Shepherd's Refuge, St. Paul's Church, CHUM Christmas Wish, The Toronto Star and The Toronto Sun charities and the SMC Building Fund.

The St. Michael's Debating Society had a very successful 1997-98 season. In the Pro-Con League, the Seniors went 11-1 with strong individual performances by Tim Jackson, Nevin de Souza and James Ball. The novices also had a strong season. At the O.S.D.U. regionals, Tim Jackson and Dave Souchon had strong debates. At the McGill Tournament in beautiful Montreal, the debaters represented St. Mike's admirably, placing highly amongst over 100 schools from across Canada and the U.S. At the Ontario Model Parliament Debate, the debators proved that even highschool students could run the province.

Worn over the heart a symbol of the Spirit of St. Michael's

Each morning as a St. Michael's student puts on his blazer he may be conscious of the patch sewn on the upper left pocket which bears the coat of arms, the crest, of St. Michael's College School.

The crest is divided into three parts. The top left of the crest shows a chalice, across from it, a book and below both of them is a stylized version of the tower on top of our building. All of these tell a story that is significant in the life of each of us. The chalice signifies the priesthood and Jesus Christ the great high priest who offered the sacrifice of His life on Calvary. The book symbolizes the Word of God as written in the Bible. Both these symbols were taken from the crest of The Basilian Fathers and identifies St. Michael's as a Basilian school. The inclusion of the Tower can be attributed to the wisdom of Father Mulcahy who saw it as a symbol pointing our way to Heaven through the cross which surmounts the dome. Thus it was under the guidance of Father Mulcahy in 1950 that our distinctive emblem was created. The final touch surmounts the crest the sword and wings the symbol of St. Michael the Archangel.

If someone on the subway should say to one of our students: "Say, kid., what's that thing on your pocket supposed to mean? And what 's that writing on there say.?"

Any one but a niner could easily reply : " the writing is in Latin and stands for goodness , discipline and knowledge."

Did you ever wonder who made up this phrase , "goodness, discipline and knowledge" which we value so greatly? It was composed a very long time ago even before the time of Our Lord. These words go back to the time of King David when the writer of the psalms used the phrase: teach me goodness and knowledge. About one hundred and seventy-five years ago the Basilians added "discipline".

These three words have been the basis of all Basilian education, for almost two hundred years. The Basilians started in a remote town in France near the foothills of the French Alps just south of the city of Lyons in the valley of the Rhone River . Certain priests there perceived there were not sufficient opportunities for the young men of the district to acquire a good Catholic education. They formed themselves into a community of teaching priests. When some of the Basilians came to the New World in 1852 they brought their style and theories of Catholic education with them. It was in Toronto that students on this side of the Atlantic, first learned the phrase: goodness, discipline and knowledge.

The Basilian priests believed that goodness must be preeminently the basis of education for the simple reason that education opens the great world of God's truth to us and enables us to participate more fully in God's goodness. In this way the Basilian teachers have always emphasized goodness as the first step on the road to knowledge and as the indispensable element in Christian education.

Long recognized as an indispensable element in a well ordered life has been the characteristic of discipline. It is discipline that enables us to put first things first and to proceed in an orderly way to achieve our perceived goal. There have never been winners academically, athletically or professionally who have not been persons of discipline.

The Latin word "scientia" means the whole body of knowledge possible to man and not just the narrow definition of science that we use today. The mind was made to know truth and the Basilian Fathers have pursued this goal for themselves and their students for a hundred and seventy-six years.

ODE TO SPEEDY

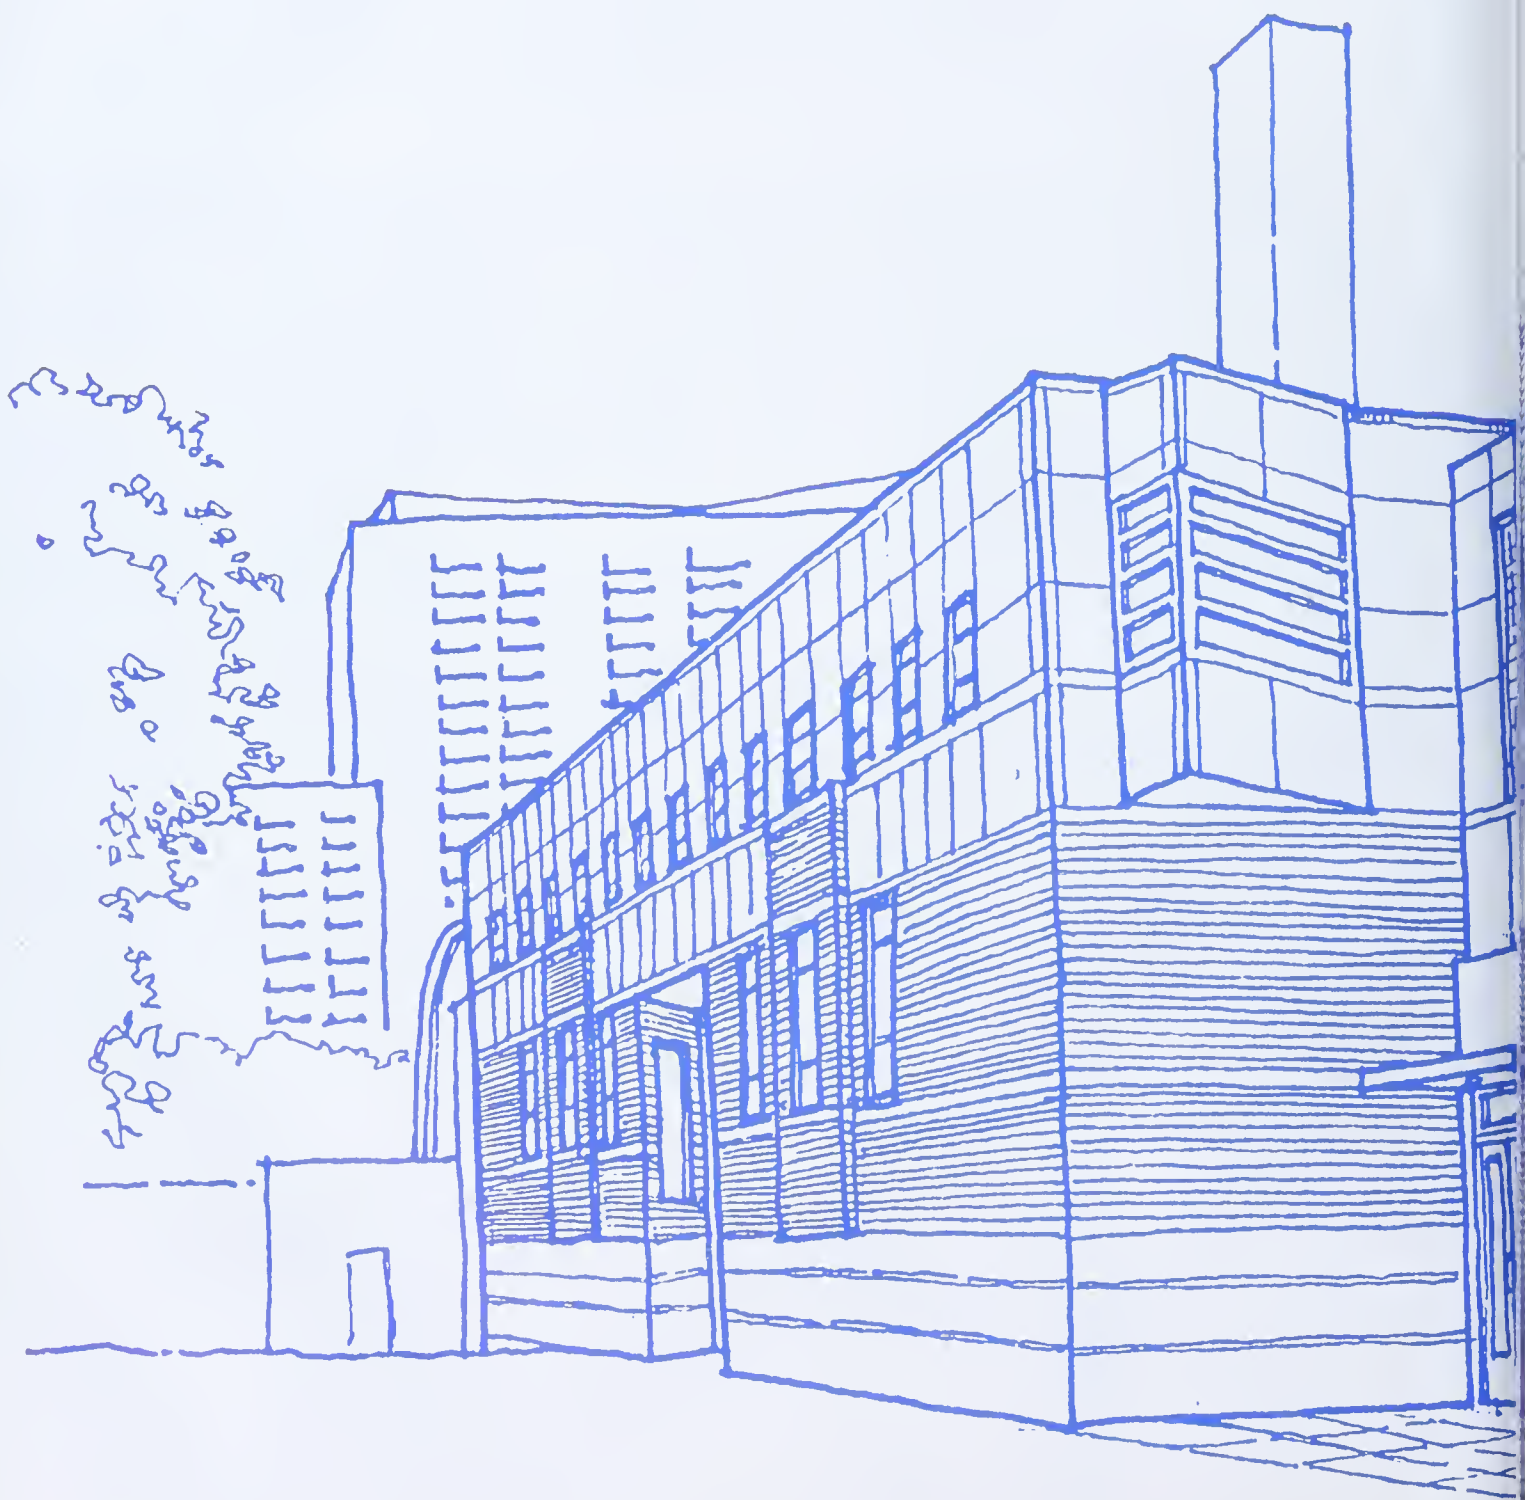

For the last five years, 'Speedy' has faithfully been there for the yearbook staff, to not only store files but as a friend. Many pages have been printed (albeit slowly but printed nonetheless) from this ancient harddrive of memories. Sadly though, technology has jumped leaps and bounds in the last 5 years and our faithful companion has found a new job as a boat anchor. May we all wave a fond farewell to our friend through good times and bad, 'Speedy'.

A blue-tinted photograph of a school building and trees in winter. In the foreground, a yellow rectangular sign is mounted on a post. The sign has the text "ST. MICHAEL'S COLLEGE" on the top line and "SCHOOL" on the bottom line, both in black, serif, all-caps font. The background shows a snow-covered ground, a street lamp, and a building partially obscured by bare trees.
